WILL BE AIRY

"Do you think that aviation will become fashionable?"

"To a certain extent," replied Miss Cayenne. "Of course, very few people will fly. But if airship costumes are made sufficiently picturesque they will be much worn."—Washington Star.

MAKING IT RIGHT

The check which the comely young German woman handed in at the window of a Walnut Street savings fund bank the other day was made payable to Gretchen H. Schmidt, and she had indorsed it simply Gretchen Schmidt. The man at the receiving teller's window called her back to rectify the mistake just as she was turning away.

"You don't deposit this quite this way," he explained. "See, you have forgotten the H."

The young woman looked at her check and then blushed a rosy red.

"Ach, so I haf," she murmured, and wrote hurriedly:

"Age 23."—Philadelphia Times.
