"This is equal in interest to Warren's Diary of a late Physician."—London Times.

"A volume of most affecting narratives, from the pen of an English priest, in some of which is displayed in a remarkable manner the power of religion over some of the worst and most abandoned characters; and in which, also, is set forth the wretched end to which vice often conducts its victims. The pious efforts of the Missionary with the infidel, the miser, the drunkard, the burglar, and other unhappy creatures, are related with simplicity and pathos."—Catholic Herald.

CAUTION.

BEING credibly informed that in this city, and elsewhere, agents of Protestant Book Publishers are going about amongst Catholics, endeavoring to procure subscribers for works, (in numbers) by representing themselves as Agents for the Sale of our publications, we caution Catholics against them.

To prevent imposition for the future, Agents employed by us, will have a written certificate. Parties desirous of subscribing for our works, will be careful to see that our names are on the cover.

We have seen Histories of Ireland circulated by these worthies, which are full of lies. We do not object to their selling their Books the best way they can, but we caution them against using our names for the purpose.

IF HEALTH be a blessing, and surely it is.

There are many who do not deserve it;

How is that you will say?—well, my answer is this:

They take no care at all to preserve it.

From whence come those asthmas, consumptions and so,

That so much swell the bills of mortality;

Attention, kind reader, 'tis useful to know—

'Tis from FEET-WARE OF SPURIOUS quality.

Near RYAN'S HOTEL, EDWARD FAGAN does dwell,

Whose Work, if you'll give it a trial,

You will find to be good, and 'tis sure to preclude

The expense of the Medicine vial.

He can fit on a moment's inspection;

'Tis well put together of excellent Leather,

Being made by his special direction.
