—Lovers of the time-honored grapejuice of Bordeaux have reason to rejoice with respect to the vintage of 1888 and 1889. The London Daily Telegraph says that the members of the jury who sit in annual judgment on the vinous productions of the Department of the Gironde have published their report, from which it may be gleaned that the red wines of the present year leave nothing to be desired as regards strength, flavor, body, and bouquet. The white wines of last year are also declared to be excellent. The best harvest was produced in Medoc and the Graves districts.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

MONTREAL, Jan. 2nd, 1890.

ASHES.—The market remains without life or demand of any kind, and values are more or less nominal. Receipts are next to nothing. We quote first pots $3.35 to 3.40, seconds about $3.00, pearls about $4.80.

BOOTS, SHOES, AND LEATHER.—A pretty general air of quietude prevails in these lines, though we hear of one or two of the shoe factories, trying to keep as many of their hands at work as they can. In leather no activity is looked for till after Old Xmas or Epiphany, to which period many of the shoe-operatives continue their revels. Leather stocks are full, but not unduly accumulated. Further advice from England report a continued fair demand, but as yet no appreciation in values. We quote:—Spanish sole, B.A., No. 1, 19 to 22c.; do., No. 2, B.A., 16 to 19c.; No. 1, ordinary Spanish, 19 to 20c.; No. 2 ditto, 16 to 17c.; No. 1, China, 18 to 19c.; No. 1 slaughter, 22 to 23c.; No. 2 do. 20 to Teeswater.A SPLENDID CHANCE.

We have decided to reduce our line of manufacture and offer for sale the plant, patterns and good will of our Plow Department.

We have been manufacturing all the leading and favorite models of Plows since 1850, and have them thoroughly introduced and established throughout the Dominion.

Our sales for 1889 were over 5,000, and this number can be largely increased at very small expense, by employing the services of our local agents, who are selling our harvesting machinery in nearly every township in the Dominion. For full information address
