

2. The requesting State shall bear the expenses of transporting any person extradited or otherwise returned pursuant to this Treaty, including any internal transportation within the requested State and any expenses incurred in respect of transit.

3. All other expenses incurred in the requested State in connection with extradition pursuant to this Treaty shall unless otherwise agreed to, be borne by the requested State.

4. No pecuniary claim, arising out of the arrest, detention, examination and surrender of any person pursuant to the provisions of this Treaty shall be made by the requested State against the requesting State.

ARTICLE 20

Applicable Law

Except where otherwise provided by this Treaty, the procedures with regard to arrest and extradition shall be governed by the laws of the requested State.

ARTICLE 21

Ratification

1. This Treaty is subject to ratification and the instruments of ratification shall be exchanged at New Delhi as soon as possible. It shall come into force upon the exchange of instruments of ratification.

2. Either of the contracting States may terminate this Treaty by giving six months notice thereof through diplomatic channels. Upon the expiry of such notice, the Treaty shall cease to have any force or effect.