

Government of Canada Awards

Essentially, these awards enable German graduate and post-graduate students to study a Canada-related subject for an academic year in a Canadian university. At the present time, the number of awards for German nationals stands at 18 annually, including renewals of previous awards.