

Local organization like, Bangladesh Railway, Civil Aviation Authority of Bangladesh (CAAB), Meteorological Department, Merchant Navy, Riverine Transportation services, various private sector enterprises and Non Government Organizations (NGO), like the Red Crescent Society and different voluntary agencies are also involved in the sector as users of various communication equipment.

2.4. Regulatory and Control activities and services

The following activities and services fall under the purview of the telecommunication sector of Bangladesh. Some of these Services are rendered as a part of international and regional obligations :

Radio Monitoring

Frequency Measurement

Radio detection

Field Strength Measurement

Radio Interference Measurements

Location and Direction Finding of unauthorized Transmitters

Aeronautical Services

Navigational Services

Broadcasting Services

Fixed Services

Land Mobile Services

Meteorological services

Radio Determination Services

Radio Location Services, etc.

A schematic diagram showing working arrangement of various organizations mentioned earlier can be seen in Figure 2.1.