

not the procedural position. In fact, the procedural position is that the adjourned debate is on the motion of the honourable Member for Grenville-Carleton (Mr. Blair) and the amendment thereto of the honourable Member for Peace River (Mr. Baldwin).

In this light, I do not think the additional argument put forward for the consideration of the House by the honourable Member for Parry Sound-Muskoka can be accepted. As I have said, no precedent has been found to support the suggestion advanced by the honourable Member for Parry Sound-Muskoka. Indeed, the concluding sentence of Standing Order 33 reads in part: “. . . but all such questions as must be decided in order to conclude such adjourned debate or postponed consideration, shall be decided forthwith.”

That is, of course, the point which has been made by the President of the Privy Council (Mr. Macdonald) indicating the distinction between our Standing Order 33 and the corresponding Standing Order in the British House. In view of the precedents, my interpretation of Standing Order 33 would lead me to believe that the point of order raised by the honourable Member for Parry Sound-Muskoka cannot be accepted by the Chair.

Pursuant to Standing Order 33, Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale), seconded by Mr. McIlraith, moved,—That the debate on the motion, “That the Third Report of the Standing Committee on Procedure and Organization, presented to the House on Friday, June 20, 1969, be concurred in” and on any amendment or amendment in amendment proposed thereto, shall not be further adjourned.

And the question having been put on the said motion, it was agreed to on the following division:
