

Business of the House

premature to pass it at the present time. The Liberal government brought down the Archambault and Fauteux reports. I am not criticizing the commissioner of penitentiaries or the penitentiaries commission when I say that Canada as a nation is woefully behind in matters of prison reform.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Chevrier: May I ask the acting leader of the government what the business of the house will be for next week?

Mr. Monteith (Perth): Mr. Speaker, the house leader asked me to announce that Monday would be private members' day. On Tuesday the business will be item No. 5 on the order paper, the NORAD agreement; then item No. 8, which has to do with the resolution in my own name; and item No. 2, a resolution in the name of the Minister of Transport.

Mr. Chevrier: Is the acting leader able to indicate what the business will be on Wednesday?

Mr. Monteith (Perth): No; I cannot do that, Mr. Speaker.

At six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
