

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Speaker: I will ask whether there is unanimous consent for the motion proposed by the hon. member for Regina-Lake Centre.

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

Mr. Speaker: There is not unanimous consent and the motion cannot be put.

[Translation]

Mr. Lambert (Bellechasse): Mr. Speaker, on a point of order. I simply wish to bring to the attention of the House the fact that I concur in what you have just said, in order to show the likely feelings of minorities which feel wronged.

Our order of business was disrupted not of our own free will but owing to circumstances on which I do not intend to dwell, as you are aware of them as well as I am. I wish that today's experience will be profitable for the future and that in other fields outside this House the minority rights will be respected in all parts of Canada.

[English]

Mr. Speaker: Is the Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources rising on a point of order?

Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale): Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order to indicate that I respect the hon. member's right to put his motion. As I said, we are quite prepared to have him and his colleagues debate the matter. However, it is fair to remind him that he and his colleagues consented to the motion put by my colleague earlier today.

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. I suggest that is not helpful. That is debating, of course, the matter which was raised earlier and I have said that there should not be debate on this matter. We cannot go on eternally trying to assess blame for what has happened. I think we should try to continue with motions.

Mr. Woolliams: Mr. Speaker, I rise on a question of privilege.

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. Woolliams: Mr. Speaker, I wonder if hon. members would be quiet. Surely, we have made enough noise today, and in that I include all of us. I would now ask for a little bit of sanity of prevail in this institution. Just because one mistake was made this afternoon, and I might say the mistake was made by the government and resulted from their trickery, that is no reason for hon. members tonight to attempt to move motion after motion on matters that are not urgent and not of immediate interest. I am making a special appeal through Your Honour. I agree with your words and sentiments. I make a special appeal to the House. Let us return to the course of sanity so that we may get on with our business.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!
