Sir Arthur Currie,
Principal,
McGill University.

Dear Mr. Principal,

In reference to your letter of the 8th instant, in which you notified me that His Honour, the Lieutenant-Governor, had kindly offered to present one silver, and one bronze medal to the Department of Commerce, I think that we might well give one of these medals to the student with the best average throughout the four years of his course in the group of subjects comprising Accountancy, Business Organization, and Commercial Law. I think that the second medal might be given to the best average throughout the four years in the French and Spanish languages. In this way we should be fostering a closer relationship with our French co-frères in this Province, and with the great group of Spanish speaking Republics in South and Central America.

I am putting this matter on the agenda for our next meeting of the Commerce Committee, which we purpose
