

from a cruel death. Their address to the chief closes, as follows:—

“Brother, Accept this token of our esteem ;— always wear it for our sakes ;—and when again you have the power to save a poor woman from death and torture, think of this, and of us, and fly to her relief and rescue.”

REPLY.

“Brothers and Sisters:—This (the medal) will give me ease, more than I ever had ; and I will listen more than I ever did to white men. I am glad, that my brothers and sisters have heard of the good act that I have done. My brothers and sisters think, that I did it in ignorance ; but I now know what I have done. I did do it in ignorance, and did not know, that I did good. But by giving me this medal, I know it.”—Morse's Report, &c.
