

iks-gúi." Yet I say to you : Love your enemy, " Pen knies-zúnem : Akł-gaménch lu an-shemén.

NOT YET, adv. Ziúzi, Che ta.

YIELD, v. t. 1st. It is not expressed in the Indian language but by Kuémt, Consequently. One bushel yielded ten, " Nkó chiluíze lu i-skólka, kuémt ópen chiluíze " (lit. One bushel was my seed, then were ten bushels).

2d. See Surrender, Agree, Grant, Swell.

YOKE, n. 1st. (Kalispel), Penpnápkanten. See Pin.

2d. (Flathead, more correct), Chizápkanten. See Chize.

YOKE, v. t. 1st. To place the yoke on bulls, Ies-chizápkanem, chizápkán.

2d. To yoke them together, Ies-azéusem. If more couples, Ies-azélisem.

3d. They are yoked (have the yoke on), Es-chizápkán.

4th. They are yoked together, Es-azéus.

5th. We carry that yoke, we are yoked with that, Ies-chizápkanem, chizápkanemen zi chizápkanten.

YOKE-FELLOW, yoke-mate, n. Snkulazéus.

YOLK, n. Snkulláp.

YONDER, adv. 1st. If no motion, Lu ilu.

2d. Of motion, Lu chlu.

YOU, pers. pro. Empilé, Empilépstemp; but usually Anui, thou. So do the chiefs speak to their folks, parents to their children. Then the verb is sometimes used in the plural, sometimes in the singular ad libitum; yet when they have a particular verb for the plural, they use this plural verb with the singular pronoun. You dwell together, " Kues-aiéuti " (lit. Thou dwellest together).

YOUNG, a. 1st. Of persons, Skukuimelt; pl. Sz'zimélt.

2d. Of animals, Łkuknimiskágae.

3d. Young man, Titúit. When they are bigger, Suinúmti.

4th. Young woman, Stíichmish, Gest smeém.

5th. Young, foolish, Psáie.

6th. When I was young, small, Pótu lu l is-kukniúme.

7th. When I was young, not knowing what I was doing, Pótu lu l is-psáie.

YOUNG, n. 1st. Of animals, Kaél—. The young of chickens, Kaélskuiskus.