FULL INQUIRY ORDERED

Charles Collins Says Italian Foreman Dismissed Him Without Provocation.

Toronto entered the city; the town council was itself ready to proceed, had the necessary bylaws passed, and a satisfactory arrangement made with the cemetery people."

the cemetery people."

Chairman Dunn teld the deputation that the matter had been delayed by the rush of business in the various departments. Both the assessment commissioner and the works commissioner promised the committee that they would have their reports ready for the next meeting of the committee, and hoped to have the work commenced before the end of the year.

At one point in the work it is necessary to construct a 112-foot bridge from the cemetery over the railway tracks onto Merton street. The plans specified a steel bridge, to which Ald. McBride objected; the committee will ask the works commissioner to call for competitive ten-

At the request of the members Collins wrote out a charge against the Italian foreman to the effect that it was he who took the lumber; the man claims he has witnesses to prove his contention. Collins claimed that on the same day of his discharge the foreman put his nephew in to fill his position. The Italian foreman, Collins, and representatives of the works committee will get evidence and meet to discuss the charges on Tuesday next.

Cannot Get Work.

H. Talbot, a resident of West Toronto, complained that for two years he has been unable to get work thru the usual civic channels and declared "Kentish" men were always given the preference on West Toronto jobs.

The committee recommended that application be made for legislation to expend $50,000 on the extension of Crawford street to College.

The street commissioner secured The street commissioner secured authority to purchase three automo-biles for his inspectors at $580 each.

ROAD WORK MAY SUFFER BY MONEY STRINGENCY

Next Season's Program Will Be Affected by Developments' in Next Few Months.

If the stringency of financial affairs should extend into the future it is unshould extend into the large projects of the government along the line of highway construction will be entered upon next year. Road work is one of the first affairs to be affected by anunsteadiness of conditions, and the outcome of the next few months will decide the Course of next season's program.

It is expected that a bill will b brought into the house at the coming session of Hon. Finlay Macdiarmid to allow the highway commission to go on with their work. Full authority will be gained for adv.ncing on the interurban and trunk lines, but condi-tions will decide the extent to which they will be worked upon.

DEATH OF PTE. HARISON

RESULT OF ACCIDENT Kingston Court Returns Finding on Circumstances Connected With Drowning of Soldier.

A verdict of accidental drowning was returned by the military court at Kingston yesterday at the inquiry into the death of Private F. W. Harison of Toronto, who was found drowned in Kingston harbor on Wednesday afternoon. From evidence submitted it is supposed that Harison's cap was blown into the water and he fell in blown into the water and he fell in while trying to get it out.

Private Harison enlisted in the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery and volunteered for service with the second contingent, journeying to kingston about six weeks ago. He was a member of the Highlanders, with which regiment he was associated for a number of years. Harison came to Toronto eleven years ago from Belfast and onto eleven years ago from Belfast and lived at 31 Ellesborough avenue. He leaves a wife and son aged 11, who are at present living at Munroe, Wash-

No arrangements have been made for the funeral. It is likely, however, he will be given a military funeral. The death of Private Harison marked the second fatality by drowning that has occurred in the 21st battalion for overseas service during the past two

FORMER TORONTO MAN WOUNDED IN FRANCE

Captain Duncan F. Campbell' Wound Not Serious—He is With Black Watch.

Captain Duncan F. Campbell, a former Torontonian and a son of the late Archibald Campbell, was wound ed while fighting at the front with the black Watch. The Canadian Associated Press report from London states that Captain Campbell's wound, which was in the arm, was not serious. Captain Campbell was born in this city in 1876, and educated at Trinity University. Ne joined the British army just before the Boer war serving in South Africa and winning his D.S.O. He is a British member of parliament, re-presenting North Ayrshire. His father was at one time a partner of Sir Wil-liam Mulock. Mr. D. Lorne Campbell of the Toronto Stock Exchange is an uncle. The late Barlow Cumberland was an uncle, and Mrs. Augustine Foy is an aunt. Five years ago Captain Campbell was married to Miss Louise O Re'lly, daughter of the master in chambers, Hamilton. He has three children. He holds the rank of captain in the Black Watch. TWO NEUTRAL PROFS IN NEW ENGLAND COLLE Judge Riddell Receives Che for Patriotic Fund From the United States.
