

Three N.H.A. Hockey Games Go Overtime :: Play This Week For the Tankard

CRIPPLED QUEBECERS LOST TO ONTARIOS

Easterners Were Unable to Stand Pace in Over-time.

Quebec had the staying powers Saturday night and won out by the score of 3 to 2 from Ontario. It was a hard game with both teams sparing neither time nor their opponents in that they fought to pull out a victory. It does not necessarily mean, however, that the roughhouse work was staged. The fact was that heavy and often timely checking was the order of the struggle. Quebec's popular victory over Wanderers on Wednesday night last was considered a feat by the Quebecers on the game, but the absence of Joe Malone and Ritchie, two injuries, seemed to stop the easterners. Their embittered did not show much to warrant them their place.

Quebec opened the first period with a rush, and Hall tallied the first one in seven minutes. MacDonald followed the score and slipped one past Herbert in exactly ten seconds. This brought a lot of comment. The fact that MacDonald had scored against his old teammates brought whistles from all corners of the rink that the local team had been stung again just as in the case of Harry Scott last year. At the end of the first period the score stood 2 to 1 in favor of Quebec. In the second period no scoring was done at all and it was the first period would pull out. However it was a case of the bitter bitten again. MacDonald had scored the odd goal against his teammates, so it was up to Tommy Smith to do this one thing against his old team.

Quebec (2) Goal, Moran; defence, Hall and Munnery; centre, Malone; forwards, Marks and Crawford. Ontario (2) Goal, Goss; defence, Howard and George McNamara; centre, Smith; forwards, Macdonald, W. Munnery, Ritchie, Westwick. Ontario again scored by the late goal, so it was up to Tommy Smith to do this one thing against his old team.

A. ROSS BIG FACTOR IN OTTAWA VICTORY

Toronto Beaten One Goal in Eighteen Minutes Over-time—Carpenter Starred

OTTAWA, Jan. 10.—After one of the most sensational games since the expansion of the N.H.A., the Toronto lost out to Ottawa at the local arena last night. Score, 2 to 1. The game was brilliantly fast at all stages, and was featured by wonderful defensive work on both sides, and went eighteen minutes overtime. Broadbent scored for Ottawa in the second period, and the Senators appeared to have the game won until, with only two minutes to play in the third session, Foyton dashed in and beat out Benedict with a side shot. Both teams faded in the overtime, and the players were stumbling all over the ice. Wilson collapsed in a heap and was carried off. Finally, Merrill broke up the rush, and carried the puck up shooting in a long one that Holmes failed to see. Six thousand people saw the match, and the excitement broke loose when Merrill's effort decided it. Art Ross made his debut on the Ottawa team, and was a great factor in the victory. There were many penalties, McGiffin and Shore being the chief offenders. Holmes and Benedict scored their club-mates on many occasions by hair-raising shots, and Carpenter, who subbed for Jack Marshall, proved one of Toronto's best players. He and Butterworth refereed a hard game in good style.
