UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

This is a very useful monthly, containing reports of important law uses and general information connected with the administration of causes and general information connected with the administration of justice in Upper Canada. Atthough more particularly intended for the profession, yet every man of business may learn much from it that may be of real advantage to him. It has hitherto been published in Itarrie, but will honestorth be in Toronto. We replace to see that those it Affarison, less, B.C. L. is to be connected with the journal. He is a young gentleman that has already highly distinguished himself in his profession, and with intenry talents of no ordinary kind, he will prove to be of great advantage to the Law Journal .- Brampion Times.

Harnson, Esq., B.C.L. is become a joint Editor. His accession to the editorials all must prove to the profession to whom he is now so well known as the author of so many works in general use, no small gain. With Mr. Harnson is assented W. D. Ardsch, Esq., who has for some time been favorably known as an Editor of the Journal. Not which transling the public caution of the Journal in Barrie, it has under the management of the Hon. James Patton acquired a very while and extended circulation. Now that it is to be published in Toronto, it is reasonable to expect that its circulation will be increased. It is a paper which should be in the hands of every Judge, Lawyer. Coroner, Magistrate, Clerk, and Bainff in Upper Canada. We hope, however, that the conductors will see fit to widen the list of their exchanges and so increase the circle of their usefulness.

It is a great mustake to suppose that Judges, Lawyers, Division Court Clerks, or Bainffs are the sole persons Interested in the administration of justice. The public at large have a deep Interest in, and feel a lively sympathy with the sentiments of a writer who propounds measures of law reform calculated to advance the public good. No discussion however well attended upon subjects of legal interest, can be satisfactorily carried on by the lay press.

The public require to be informed not only as to the existence of an abuse which be during a remedy, but as to the nature of the remedy required. For such information the more proper and more product course is to turn to the columns of a newspaper conducted by men whose whole lives and training peculiarly befit them for the expectsion of sound views. The training peculiarly best them for the expression of cound views. The number of the Journal before us which is that for August is replete with legal lore The Editorial Departi ledge and ability.—Toronto Times. The Editorial Department bears marked evidence of know-

We subjoin an article from the Law Journal, a legal periodical—indeed the only one published in Uppper Canada—shewing the immense progress of the Division Courts.

This periodical which is now published in Toronto, is conducted with much ability and is very useful to all having business in the Superior and Division Courts—Advance.

We have received the last three numbers of this able legal serial although from various causes we have laid them on one side. Neglect is not been the cause of this apparent indifference, but the very contary. We wished for learned leisure to do them justice; and we have been favored with the assistance of a filend, abler than outselves to give an opinion on the unrits of a purely professional Journal. From him we understand that the Journal is mainly edited by R. A. Harrison. Esq., we understand that the Journal is mainly couled by it. A. Harrison, Eq. 1, B. C. L. The extensive usefulness of this Journal is not appreciated as generality as were desirable. It is not as many conceive, useful alone to the lawyer and the Student. Men of business, bankers, the community will derive the greatest benefit from the persual of its pages. In a country such as ours where almost every individual we meet is either a plaintiff or defendant it is a duty which a man owes to himself to learn something of the operation of the laws by which we abide and are zoverned. For this the Law Journal is of incalcuable service. To our young men we would especially recommend its careful and attentive study; and we undertake to warrant that after a few months they will obtain more business and legal knowledge than they could otherwise acquire from as many years study of the largest black letter tomes. The Law Journal is precided over by Mr. Harrison, of the Attorney General's Department—a gentleman of varied and extensive crudition; and who has thus far given evidence of a high order of ability which must rapidly command for him a forement position in his profession. We wish the Law Journal every success.—Catholic Chiten. The extensive usefulness of this Journal is not appreciated as generality Catholic Celizen.

Somewhere it has been said that to know a people thoroughly, it is necessary to study their laws—to ascertain how life and property are prote ted. This ably conducted Journal tells us how the laws expacted by government are administered in Upper Canada. It tells us—what everybody knows—that law is expensive, and it adds that cheap justice is a curse, the expense of the law being the price of liberty, Both assertions are certainly truisms, yet a litigious and quarrelsome spirit is

It is not our hurpose to review the Journal, but to praise it; seeing that praise is deserved. The articles are, well written, the rep ris of cases are interesting, and the general information is such, that the Journal ought not only to be read, but studied by the memhere of the bar, the maxi-tracy, the learned professions generally, and by the merchant.

We have to return our thanks to the conductors (or publishers, we do not know which, of this valuable publication for the present January number, together with an ample index for, and list of cases reported and cited in the second volume of these reports for the year 1856.

The ability with which this highly important and usefur periodical is conducted by W. D. Ardysh and Robert A. Harrison, B. C. L. Esquires, livristers at Law, reflects the greatest credit upon these gentlemen, and shows that the esteem in which they are held by their professional concrets and the public, is deservedly merited and nothing more than they are autitied to. W. have much pleasure in earnestly recommonding the members of the bar for this section of the Province to support the Upper Canada Law Journal, by their subscriptions,—taking leave to assure them that it is well worthy of it, and that they will find it a valuable acquidition to their libraries as a legal work of reference and high authority. It is printed and published by Messrs. Macher, Thomas & Co., of 16 King Street East, Toronto, and the typographical portion is very creditable to that firm.—Qubec Mercury.

The Upper Canada Lrus Jaurnal, and Local Curts Gazette, is a publication of which the legal profession of the Province need not be ashamed. The Journal has greatly improved since the removal of the office of publication to Toronto. It is educed with ability by W. D. Ardagh, and R. A. Hartlson, B. C. L., Barristerset Law. The January number, which is the first of the Jourth volume, appears in a considerably enlarged form. Tha Jaurth volume will contain at jeast one-third more reading matter than its predecessor. A very important question, "Shall we have a Bankruptcy Law?" is discussed at length in a well. Tittlen editorial in the January issue, to which we shall refer on a future occasion. "License of Counsel," is an original article which probes barristers in many tender spots. The Law Journal's circulation should not be confined entirely to the legal profession—the Merchant, and general business man would find it a very useful work. The price is $4 a year in advance, or $5 otherwise. Now is the time to send in orders.—Port Hope Guide.

In its first number of the fourth volume this interesting and valuable In its first number of the fourth volume this interesting and valuable publication comes to us highly improved in appearance, with a much wider range of editorial matter than formerly. The Journal has entered upon a broader career of utility, grapping with the higher branches of law, and leading the strength of a full, fresh intelligence, to the c nsideration of some very grave wants in our civil code. The necessity of an equable and efficient "Bankruptcy L w" is discussed in an able article, instinct with a stute and profound thought, coupled with much clear, subtle lead discrimination.

It is the intention of the Proprietors to institute in the pages of the Journal a "Magistrat.'s Manual:"—provided that that body meet the project in the proper spl it, and contribute an adequate subscription list to warrant the undertaking. To prosecute the contemplation, could not fail to be productive of incalcuable advantage, as well to the community as to the Magistracy. We slocerely hope that this latter body will bestow a generous patronage, where so laudable an effort is made for their advantage. their advantage.

This Journal which is published monthly, appears this week much improved in size, appearance and matter. It was formerly published in liarrie, but has for some numbers back been published in Toronto, and has acquired aid in the editorial staff by the addition of Mr. Harrison, who is well known in the profession from his numerous publications on legal subjects. Under the management of Mr. Ardagh and Mr Harrison, this Journal promises fair to become an important publication, not merely to the legal pr fession, but to other important classes of the community, as particular attendion is given to founding affairs, County Courts and Division Courts; Magistrates' duties also receive a considerable share of consideration. It will contain original treaties and essays can law subjects, written expressly for the Journal, besides reports from the Superior Courts of Common Law and the Court of Chancery. Proper selections will also be made from English periodicals. To the profession the reports from Chambers of decisions under the Common Law Procedure Acts and the general practice, are of particular interest. These the Journal supplies, being formerly reported by Mr. F. More Benson, and latterly by Mr. C. E. English, M. A. We would advise all municipal officers, Division Courts officers, Magistrates, and particularly the profession, to parconize this publication, as it cannot be sustained without their aid. The subscription is only $4 ayear in advance—Leader. Leader.

The January number of this valuable Journal has come to hand, and is as usual replete with legal decusions, strickes on commercial law, &c. &c. We republish from this number, an able article on the subject of a Bankropt Law for Canada.—Cunadian Merchanis' Magazine.
