SCEPTICISM . . . . .	57
Evidence of the death of conscience—Darwinism not logical: Varieties not proof of species—Creation after kind illustrated from living Nature—The glacial age: What became of vegetable and animal life—The Deluge a better Explanation: change of watersheds.
THE ELENCHOS . . . . .	71
The fear of God the great persuasive—Churches filled where understood—The kingdom holds both wise and foolish virgins—A strong undercurrent of spiritual decay—The growth of standing armies.
BAPTISM AND REPENTANCE . . . . .	93
To represent the Spirit the water must descend—Christ's baptism on the cross not in the tomb—Infant baptism like infant circumcision a great lesson—A radical change of nature needed.
THE SPIRIT OF THE TWO TESTAMENTS . . . . .	114
Severity then: severity now—Mahomet and the chastisement of the Christian nations—Chastisement of the slave-holders then and now—Church and State one then: separated now—Severe Psalms bear on duty of the State—Substitution of pity for indignation against crime ruinous.
THE FULNESS OF TIME . . . . .	129
Preparedness for the Gospel necessary—The Jews diffused the idea of God as Christian nations now—Also idea of justice necessary—Knowledge by controversy a preparation—And the fallow must be broken by awakening.
