

INDEX

Napoleon, his remarks on the Russian Campaign, 191
 — his remarks on his victories, 192
 — attributes his fall to Austria, 192
 — his remarks on his generals, 193
 — regrets not having been killed in battle, 197
 — regrets having left Egypt, 198
 — his plan to conquer India, 199
 — his remarks on the Battle of Waterloo, 202
 — his hatred of the Revolution, 207
 — his death unexpected, 217
 — his burial, 218
 — his remains brought to France, 219
 — the cause of his death, 221
 — his military greatness, 223
 — his powers of administration, 229
 — his physical constitution, 230
 — his work as legislator, 230
 — his physical appearance, 253-6
 Ney, Marshal, Napoleon's remarks on his execution, 166
 Nicholls, Captain, reports his difficulties in procuring a sight of Napoleon, 101
Northumberland, The, conditions on board during the voyage to St Helena, 64
 O'MEARA, his manuscript Journal, 4
 — informs Napoleon of the publication of Warden's Letters, 14
 — his investigations respecting the affair of the Duc d'Enghien, 14
 — accused Montholon of being untruthful, 22
 — the impossibility of accepting his evidence, 31
 — the popularity of his book, 31
 — said to have made preparations for Napoleon's rescue, 102
 PASQUIER points out inaccuracies in Las Cases' book, 21
 Piontkowski, a member of Napoleon's staff at St Helena, 130
 Planat selected by Napoleon to accompany him in captivity, 35
 Poppleton, Captain, orderly officer at Longwood, 99, 123

RAFF, his view of Napoleon's character, 47
 Rats, the curse of St Helena, 134
 Roads, Sir Thomas, asserts the inaccuracy of Warden's Letters, 20
 Religion one of Napoleon's chief topics of conversation, 168
 Revolution, The, Napoleon's hatred of, 207
 Robinson, Marianne, Napoleon's acquaintance with, 132
 Rocquain, his opinion of letter quoted by Las Cases, 12
 Roederer, his report of Napoleon's conversation, 164
 Russian Campaign, Napoleon's remarks on, 191
 ST HELENA, why selected as a prison for Napoleon, 62
 Santini, his book a fabrication, 31
 — deported from St Helena, 32
 Savary forbidden to accompany Napoleon to St Helena, 62
 Scott, Sir Walter, his charges against Gourmand, 37
 — his opinion of Sir Hindson Lowe, 68
 — on Napoleon's right to the title of Emperor, 80
 Ségur notes the decline of Napoleon's health and energy, 106
 Senhouse, his description of Napoleon's appearance, 254
 Stendhal, his opinion as to the cause of Napoleon's fall, 243
 Sturmer, his opinion of Sir Hindson Lowe, 69
 — Napoleon attempts to open relations with his father-in-law through, 147
 Sussex, Duke of, protested against the treatment of Napoleon, 59
 TALLEYRAND, the Duc d'Enghien affair attributed by Warden to, 14
 — acquitted by Napoleon of any blame in the Enghien affair, 17
 — the effect of Napoleon's quarrel with, 241
 Thiers believed the letter from Napoleon to Murat to be genuine, 20
 Trafalgar, the famous signal at, 96
 Turenne considered by Napoleon the greatest French General, 193