

the light of love and hope taken out of their lives ? how many more fathers, and husbands, and sons must be offered up on the altar of this devilish license system, and other compromises, before this Christian people will stand shoulder to shoulder, and for wife and babies and friends, and home, and country cry : " Cowards out of the way ! this is a battle to the death, and may God defend the right ! "

