

the bonds issued by the India Company on the first of March 1809, amounted, by their own account, to £4,869,992.

The public debt of Ireland, amounting to more than eighty-two millions, and the notes, issued by the Irish Bank, which a year ago amounted to upwards of three millions, must be taken into the same account.

VIII.

1. National funded debt of
GREAT BRITAIN . . .	784,552,142
2. Unfunded ditto . . .	49,634,946
3. Notes issued by the Bank of England . . .	21,406,930
4. Notes of private bankers . . .	84,000,000
5. India bonds in circulation . . .	4,869,992

IRELAND.

6. Funded debt in Jan. 1810 . . .	81,510,856
7. Unfunded ditto, exclusive of the capital of sundry annuities, for lives and for terms, which I cannot ascertain . . .	684,809

Carried over £1,026,659,6