

the minutes, if insisted upon by two or more members.

16.—Any question decided by the Council shall be open for a reconsideration.

17.—When a member speaks or offers a motion he shall rise in his place, and respectfully addressing the Warden or presiding officer, confine himself to the question under consideration, and avoid personality or unbecoming language.

18.—When a member is called to order he shall take his seat until the point is determined.

19.—When two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the presiding officer shall decide who is entitled to the floor.

20.—No member shall speak more than twice on any question, without leave of the Council, which leave shall be granted or refused without debate.

21.—While a member is speaking, no one shall interrupt him, except for the purpose of calling him to order, or asking of the presiding officer leave to explain. A member allowed "to explain" shall only have the right to explain an actual misunderstanding of language, and shall be strictly prohibited from going into debate on the merits of the case.

22.—For any member in speaking to impeach the motives of a fellow member, or treat him with personal disrespect, or pass between him and the Chair while he is speaking, shall be deemed a violation of order, which may receive the censure of the presiding officer or of the Council.

23.—If a member shall deem himself personally aggrieved by a decision of the Chair, he may appeal from such decision to the Council.

24.—Any conversation, by whispering or otherwise, which is calculated to disturb a member while speaking, or hinder the transaction of business shall be deemed a violation of order, and if persisted in, shall receive censure.

25.—Every member shall be heard in his place touching any charge brought against him as such, or any motion respecting his election, return or privilege, or whenever his private interest is affected, but shall withdraw before the Council proceed therein.

26.—When a question is before the Council, the only motion in order shall be—1st, to adjourn; 2nd, to lay on the table; 3rd, to postpone indefinitely; 4th, to postpone to a definite period; 5th, to amend; or 6th to refer.

27.—A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except, 1st, when a member is in possession of the floor; 2nd, while the yeas or nays are being called; 3rd, while the members are voting; 4th when adjournment was the last preceding motion.

28.—QUESTIONS NOT DEBATEABLE.—A motion to adjourn, when to adjourn simply; a motion to lie on the table, when claiming privilege over another motion; a motion to reconsider; a motion to take up particular items of business,

29.—The Council may go into committee of the whole, upon any question that comes before it, and elect a chairman to preside while in committee on such question, in discussion of which the Warden may take part.

30.—The Secretary-Treasurer shall notify the first Councillor named on every committee of his appointment, by furnishing him with a copy of the Resolution appointing such committee.

31.—The mover or proposer of any question which shall be referred to a committee shall always be named as a member of such committee, unless he be incompetent, or be excused by a majority of the Councillors present or at his own request.
