MR. BORDEN'S PLATFORM.

While the general election was fought and won on the issue of reciprocity, agreement it ought not to be overlooked that Mr. R. L. Borden, the premier-elect, has a platform of high intrinsic merit and importance. In his manifesto to the electors of Canada he gave the pledge of the Liberal-Conservative party to carry out the following policy if returned to power:

"1. A thorough reorganization of the method by which public expenditure is supervised. The increase in what is known as ordinary controllable expenditure from $21,500,000 in 1896 to nearly $75,000,000 in 1911 is proof of extravagance beyond any possible denial.
"2. The granting of their natural resources to the Prairie Provinces.
"3. The construction of the Hudson Bay Railway and its operation by independent management.
"4. The control and operation by the state of the terminal elevators.
"5. The necessary encouragement for establishing and carrying on the chilled meat industry.
"6. The establishment of a permanent tariff commission.
"7. The granting of substantial assistance towards the improvement of our public highways.
"8. The extension of free rural mail delivery.
"9. The extension of civil service reform.
"10. The granting of liberal assistance to the provinces for the purpose of supplementing and extending the work of agricultural education and for the improvement of agriculture.
"And lastly, we pledge ourselves to a course of policy and administration which will maintain independent and unimpaired the control of our own affairs by the parliament of Canada; a policy which, while affording no just cause of complaint to any foreign nation, will find its highest ideal in the autonomous development of Canada as a nation within the British Empire."

The ten points of this declaration, and the general sense with which it clothes the foundation of a valuable constructive endeavor that will be of inestimable benefit to the whole Dominion. The first three have special reference to the prairie provinces, and the second and third include the main demands of the grain growers' deputation apart from their demand for tariff relief. But even this is not excluded, for Mr. Borden has undertaken to establish a permanent tariff commission whose duty it will be to review the duties on scientific lines and the balance even-among all the national interest concerned. Such an expert commission has been strongly urged by The World and will be not the least of the advantages that will accrue from the change of government.

All the farmers of Canada will benefit by substantial assistance for the good roads movement, another and not the least valuable way of reducing the cost of living, and by liberal grants for extending and improving agricultural methods. Agriculturists and stock raisers will profit by government encouragement of the chilled meat industry. This also has been expansion of the terminal elevators is a acknowledgment of the principle of public ownership, which will commend itself all over the country. Ontario, which has so splendidly rallied to Mr.
Torden's support, is practically a unit on the merits of this principle, as exemplified by the hydro-electric policy of the provincial government.

The premier-elect undertakes the responsible duties of his high office with the fairest prospects. He is transmuted by no entangling ties, or by pledges which it may embarrass him to fulfill. Mr. Borden has it in his power not only to give the Dominion able, honest and efficient government, but to conduct his administration and to forward progressive legislation, so that the good of the whole country may be considered and secured. The country can be trusted to respond to a course of policy that embodies the national ideals in all departments of the public service and is guided by the clear determination of the Canadian people to remain a free nation within the empire.

EFFECT WILL BE GOOD.
Little exception can be taken to the comment of the principal United States newspapers on the result of the Dominion general election. Only here and there can a more or less veiled warning be found that the rejection of reciprocity may be resented. But the endorsement at philosophical acceptance of the verdict does not disguise the true ture of surprise that mingles with the disappointment. For despite all attempts to the contrary effect even the public men of the United States have not been able to escape from a lurking belief that Canada's attitude towards the empire was less sentimental than traditional and the band so light as to be negligible.

The sweeping majority against reciprocity should have a valuable educational influence on United States opinion. Acceptance of the Washington pact would have led to an immense recrudescence of the annexation notion. It should now be dispelled and its disappearance will, after the first irritation has passed, aid materially in placing the relationship of Canada with the United States on a proper footing and thus in the end make for enduring friendship. Another nation that will not be unimpaired of this proof of Canadian loyalty to Germany, which also has eagerly welcomed supposed evidence that Canada would break away from the empire. If for nothing else than these things the defeat of reciprocity will be memorable.

SOME PRESS COMMENT.
One might have thought that the expression of opinion on Thursday was sufficiently definite and clear to leave no room for misunderstanding. There are still many people who never learn and never forget, and the comments in the press show that newspaper circles are not entirely free from the Bourbon trait. Much, of course, is to be allowed for the first hasty reflections after our unexpected shock, but there had been ample time to consider both sides of the question, as every wise man does of every question.
The peculiar thing about much of the comment is that it shows no familiarity with the other side of the reciprocity question at all.

A news note in an opposition newspaper illustrates this point. "The Massachusetts Provinces were expected to go more or less solidly for the pact, on account of the benefits which the fishermen would gain under the agreement."
Could the writer of this have ever read the agreement? Were the fishermen, after reading clause 12, in the least likely to wipe themselves out of existence by handing over the business to American fishermen?

The Ottawa Free Press, which opposed reciprocity when it was first proposed, takes a sensible view of the situation. On the other hand The Hamilton Times indulges in this remark: "It is at once a vote of want of confidence in Canadian patriotism, and a declaration of hostility toward the adjoining republic." This is the waited-for attitude of some of the party papers. Are the people likely to vote want of confidence in themselves, or is it meant that the Laurier cabinet contained all the patriotism in the country? The Montreal Witness takes the ground that the majority of the people of Canada are silly creatures.

The Toronto Globe outdistances all rivals in this line of thought. The Globe is still laboring under an obsession from which it must be freed before the reputation it once had for reason and fairness can be restored.
After weeks of denunciation of others for an alleged desire to set the provinces against each other The Globe yesterday morning deliberately closed its eyes to the solidarity of the whole Dominion and attempts to set the rest of Canada against Ontario. It is difficult to say that it is only blindness that leads to such a policy.

The Toronto Star falls into a general error in blaming the people for condemning the method of the government in trying to secure reciprocity. The people were very clear that they would not have reciprocity on the terms of allying their government with a United

Would Fall in a Faint

When He Attempted to Work, So Exhausted Was the Nervous System.

The Feeble, Wasted Nerves Were Restored and Revitalized by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Nervous prostration is a terrible disease to all who understand its symptoms. At times the sufferer feels comparatively well, but with slight exertion the dreadful helplessness returns and all strength and vitality seems to leave the system.
This letter from Mrs. Martin very well describes the terrible condition in which many a sufferer finds herself.
She also tells how she regained health and strength by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after all other treatments had failed.

Mrs. Edwin Martin, Ayer's Cliff, Que., writes: "Before I began using Dr.
Chase's Nerve Food I was in a terrible condition from nervous exhaustion and prostration. Daily spells would come over me and I would fall to the floor.
The weakness that so greatly troubled me, I could not so much as sweep the floor without fainting, but the nerve food helped me after the doctor failed. It has done wonders in building up my nervous system. I can do my own housework now and washing, and feel that this great medicine has been a godsend to me. I think it is the best of medicines."

Toronto Man Cured
of Intolerable Itch

By Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment

"I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. For over five years I was tormented by a terrible and intolerable itch. It was so bad that I could not sleep and I was unable to do my work. I had tried everything I could think of, but nothing helped. I was so miserable that I was about to give up. Then I saw an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment.
I bought it and used it. I took a bath with Cuticura Soap and then I rubbed Cuticura Ointment on my skin. I did this every day. After a few days the itching began to subside. After a week it was completely cured. I am now as well as ever. I can sleep and I can do my work.
I am so happy that I want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment.
I think it is the best of medicines."
J. E. Hooper, 288 Parliament Street, Toronto, Jan. 10, 1911.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment has afforded the speediest, simplest and most economical treatment for skin and scalp humors. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. A liberal sample of each with 32-page book, sent free to any address, by the Cuticura Soap Co., Inc.,

States political party, and at the expense of their own parliamentary independence.
People are undoubtedly glad to get the reciprocity discussion out of the way, and are generally heartily tired of it. They are not so inert, however, as to not realize that an intelligent discussion is a necessary factor of good government, and they would be glad to see the reciprocity organs opening their eyes to facts, and searching for something in the way of a constructive policy. The Ontario legislature opposition is an example of the utter incapacity of the Liberal pros-to take any ground but that of petty criticism. The big progressive questions which would appeal to a large section of the electorate are actually farther beyond the intelligence of The Globe than they are of the government. The people see this and they give Sir James Whitney their confidence. He has no rival. Similarly, Mr. Borden has only to do what the public interest demands, and from the tone of the opposition press, which appears resolved to continue the agitation of a reciprocity policy for the next few generations, Mr. Borden will have no rival any more than Sir James Whitney. No party can afford to give up to its own creatures what is meant for the country.

HAS CLEANED THE AIR.
One of the wonderful things of the late election was the rapid way in which it cleared the air. It was so sweeping that it not only settled reciprocity, but it settled the minds of everyone in business. Even the market gardeners had a load taken off their minds in one night. They saw nothing ahead of them but the most unfair competition of American garden products, and the loss of their livelihood. Now they are all happy men.
The same with many large investors, who contemplate factory extensions of one kind or another, or who have recently made extensions and saw direct loss ahead. They now are all happy. Owners of real estate feel much better. So do all the railroad men and railway companies; and in a hundred other ways the voice of the people has cleared the air and given a new encouragement to active operations of all kinds.

The farming weeklies and their able editors don't take the farmers with them on reciprocity. Neither did the eminent K.C.'s who sweat blood for the sons of the soil on many a platform. Even Sam Blake, K.C., put on cowhide boots in vain.

without reason, that DR. MACDON-ALD IS DISTINCTLY RESPONSIBLE

Whiskey Holds Its Victims.
Until Released by Wonderful Samaria Prescription.
Liquor sets up inflammation and irritation of the stomach and weakens the nerves. The steady or periodical (gross) drinker is often forced to drink even against his will by his unnatural physical condition.
Samaria Prescription stops the craving, steadies the nerves, builds up the general health and makes drink actually distasteful and nauseous. It is tasteful and odorless, and can be given with or without the knowledge of the patient.
Thousands of Canadian homes have been saved from misery and disgrace by some devoted wife, mother or daughter through this wonderful Canadian remedy. The money formerly wasted in drink has been restored happiness, home comfort, education and respect to the families formerly in want of these things.

Read the following, one of the numerous unsolicited testimonials received.
"I can never repay you for your remedy. It is worth more than life to me.
My mind has been offered liquor several times, but would not touch it. He said it had no charm for him now. May God bless you for the good you have done, and may your prayers ever be answered. I know you will give me nothing but the best. I will give them your address."
Mrs. K. —, Dewinton, Alta.

Now, if you know of any family needing this remedy, tell them about it. If you have any friend or relative who has formed or is forming a habit, help him to release himself from its awful clutches. Samaria Prescription is used by Physicians and Hospitals.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS.
The steamship lines are expecting a large home-going exodus for the holiday season this year, and are making extensive preparations to take care of all those who are planning to visit the old country.
The White Star-Dominion Line has arranged for three special Christmas sailings viz. the "Canada," December 2nd; "Meganitic," December 9th and "Tutonic," December 16th. From Port Land, Me., and Halifax, N. S. to take care of the passengers. These steamers will arrive in ample time to enable passengers to reach their homes before Christmas whether in England or on the continent.

The railroads have recognized the growing popularity of these annual Christmas excursions and now run special trains from Montreal and the west to connect with the steamers, and the most complete arrangements are made by both the steamship companies and the rail lines to further the comfort of the homeward bound ones during the holiday season.

pying the entire ground floor.

JAMAICA'S PLANS.
KINGSTON, Jamaica, Sept. 22.—Various proposals are before the Jamaican Government with the idea of preparing Jamaica for benefits that are believed likely to accrue thru the opening of the Panama Canal. One of these is to make Kingston a coaling station and another contemplates the purchase of a floating drydock and the equipment of a repair plant for vessels. Before acting on the proposals, however, Sir Sydney Olivier, governor of Jamica, will visit the canal zone next month and make a study of the canal colony is likely to get when the canal is ready for business.

PASSENGERS STRANDED.
QUEBEC, Sept. 22.—Two hundred passengers, some of whom came on the White Star steamer Cedric from New York last night, and others on the same company's steamer Arable from Boston to-day, are stranded here, unable to reach their destination because of the general strike on the Irish railways, called by the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants last night.
The city is practically isolated from the land side. The railway officials stated that no trains would arrive at Quebec today, and that they would be able to resume operations. Not even the mails can be despatched.
