ter, nominated by Dr. Williams, seconded

by R. F. Clark, accl.

The above were all called to the platform, while each was allowed to speak for ten minutes. The first was Ald. Hubbard, who showed what improvement there had been in the city in the past year. His main point was the securing of the Athletic Club for the Technical school. This had been the only thing that had been done, he stated by the city.

The municipal franchise ownership candidate, Thomas Urquhart, followed, and he argued that the city should own all franchises.

In thanking those present for the confidence they had placed in him for the past seven years, Ald. Crane said that the speakers had said almost all there was to say, but he hoped next year there would be more done for less expenditure than this year.

"You voted down my motion," he said, "but I am sure that you will vote for me next year."

Speeches were then made by N. P. Patterson, R. Platt and A. R. Williams.

WARD FIVE.

A farcical crowd gathered at Western Association Hall, on West Queen-st, last night to assist in the election of the aldermanic candidates for Ward 5.

The first speaker was Ald. Hubbard, who had no difficulty in keeping order. The crowd was most orderly.

The following nominations were handed in for aldermen:

William L. Bell, retiring alderman, proposed by Robert Bennett and seconded by George Wilks.

David Clark, plumber, 58 Arthur-street, proposed by T. B. Whynick, seconded by Thomas Crawford.

Dr. W. S. Fraleigh, 306 College-street, proposed by George Bishop, seconded by Stephen A. Pascoe.

Edmund Scullion, carpenter, 112 Oxford-street, proposed by F. J. Sabine, seconded by W. L. Bell.

John J. Dunbar, carpenter, 679 Crawford-street, proposed by T. B. Whynick, seconded by H. P. McIntosh.

William Crocker, gentleman, proposed by W. Clark, seconded by J. W. Lindsay.

J. R. L. Starr, barrister, proposed by William Crocker, seconded by J. R. L. Starr.

Francis Henry Woods, printer, 338 Crawford-street, proposed by Dr. A. D. Watson, seconded by William Crocker.

Alexander Stewart, coal merchant, 128 Crawford-street, proposed by R. H. Graham, seconded by William Crocker.

John Dunn, cattle dealer, 110 Givens-street, proposed by R. H. Graham and J. R. L. Starr, seconded by W. L. Bell.

Arthur Richard, realtor, 507 Bloor-street, proposed by Francis Galbraith and Frederick Atwood.

Arthur W. Miles, traveler, 225 Bloor-street, proposed by H. Baker and S. Henderson.

George Evans, merchant, 500 West Avenue, proposed by Francis Wager and H. Henderson.

School Trustees.
The following gentlemen were nominated for school trustees for a two-year term:

Albert J. Keefer, barrister, 328 Bloor-street, proposed by William Crocker and W. L. Bell.

Richard Henry Watson, father, 31 Bloor-street, proposed by William Crocker and J. R. L. Starr.

Nathaniel Smith, agent, 428 Ossington-street, proposed by R. H. Graham and Ald. Starr.

R. M. Turnbull, druggist, 306 Crawford-street, proposed by Thomas Crawford and William Crocker.

The following nominations for school trustees for the term of one year, to succeed J. R. L. Starr, were:

G. H. Lee, barrister, 411 Markham-street, proposed by W. D. Mitchell and J. R. L. Starr.

John Teller, barrister, 306 Manning-avenue, proposed by W. L. Bell and J. R. L. Starr.

William N. McCracken, lumber dealer, 361 Markham-street, proposed by George Willis and A. J. McPherson.

F. J. Sabine, confectioner, 168 West Avenue, proposed by Edmund Scullion and William L. Bell.

Speeches Attempted.
After the returning officer had declared the time for receiving nominations to be closed, Mr. William L. Bell was appointed chairman, and the candidates, having taken their seats upon the platform, the speeches began.

The meeting declared in favor of having the time for receiving nominations to be closed, Mr. William L. Bell was appointed chairman, and the candidates, having taken their seats upon the platform, the speeches began.

Stumbling Wrecks!—Undone and overdone! Discouraged and desolate! Emulated nerve wrecks! Not one of us is too deep down in the mire of disease but the story of such a potent remedy as South American Nervine can reach you and lift you back to good health. It's nature's trusted lieutenant, gentle, but firm and unflinching. It never fails.—168 assessments, also upon the street car question generally, pledging himself to make the company pay for the damage done by a car when it was in the street.

Arthur W. Miles laid special stress upon the fact that he represented the young Canadian idea, and also represented the boys in the street.

He reviewed his actions in the Council. He placed himself on record in favor of the city taking over all franchises.

Ald. Dunn, Denton and Woods briefly sketched their past records, and invited questions from the audience, which they did their best to answer.

After this came the turn of the candidates for the position of school trustees, but by this time the audience was getting restless, and started to enjoy itself at the expense of the speakers.

WARD SIX.

St. Mark's Hall was packed with a well-kept crowd of Ward 6 residents, and at times it seemed as if the room had been turned into a ballroom.

Between the speakers, the music was played, and the crowd was kept in good humor.
