County Orange Hall. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion with banners. G. O. Roche, W.M., presided.
The toast of "The King" was dully honored. "The Immortal Memory of William, Prince of Orange," was drunk th silence. "The Supreme and Provincial Lodges", was replied to by John McMillan, Grand Master of Ontario
West, and Past County Master Frank Somers. County Master Harry Loveflock responded to "The County Lodge." Thomas Cooke, district master of Centre Toronto, and Charles H. Nobledeputy district master of Centre Toronto, replied to "The District Lodges," and Peter Fahert, W.M., of Nassau L.O.L., No. 4: Alex, Hall, grand master of the L.O.T.B., and W. Smith of Elmdale, Ont., to "Visiting Brethren."

An interesting feature of the dinner was the presentation to the retiring Worshipful Master, William B. Sprigley, of a handsome past master's jewel by the county master, and the giving of a beautiful gold watch to the financial secretary, Alex. Douglas. The latter presentation was made by John McMillan. A program of musical selections was given by Mat. McCartney, Edward Major, W. Thomas McKnight, Mr. Blackmall and others.

F Company Q.O.R. The annual meeting of "F" Company, Q.O.R., was held at the Sergeants' Mess last evening, Captain Barker in the chair. The treasurer reported a large balance on hand. It was decided to hold the annual dinner next month, and a committee was appointed to complete arrangements. The civil officers and committees for the ensuing year were elected, and the company subsequently adjourned for refreshments.
