Argonauts Will Have a Ball.
The Argonauts committee met on Friday night at the National Club. It was decided to hold a ball in January. Considerable planning to the club house will be done. The matter of a trip to Hecley next summer was left over.

Hare Old Wines.
We have some rare Burgundies which no other dealer has, our own importations. For special festivities we have claret, champagne and port of finest vintage. Fred Morton, 248 Queen West, Telephone 610.

WILSON'S EXCLUSIVE STORE

Exclusively a Christmas Shopping Place of the Old for the Young...

Our store is one of merry thought for the parent as well as the child. For the donor this is a vertical little world chock full of pleasing surprises for Christmas shopping. Our variety is very varied. If you have not paid us a visit do so, if it's only a visit, for we want to see and to show you what we have, and to convince you that we are the leaders in amusement furnishings for all ages. If you are preparing a surprise for a boy, a girl or a friend remember this is a store for all of them.

FOR A GIRL

Our Doll Department is complete in every sense of the word—for our Dolls are all sizes, representing every walk in life, and we can fill your order in any price. Dolls' Houses, Beds, Furniture, Clothes, Dolls' Carriages, Rubber Goods, Picture Books, Dishes, Building Blocks, Tennis Racquets, Golf Clubs, Indian Clubs, games of all kinds. The latest novels in paper and cloth, etc., etc., are here to be found.

FOR A BOY

Ours is a great list—so great that this space will not permit of many lines. We will mention a few, but our catalogue tells of them all. Air Rifles, Guns of all kinds, Soldier Suits, Sleighs, Velocipedes, Boats of steam, sail and that wind up, Magic Lanterns, Hobby Horses, Rocking Horses, Bows and Arrows, Harmless Pistols, Railroad Trains, Steam Engines, Waggon, Drums, Whips, Books of Adventure, Skates, Punching Bags, Boxing Gloves, etc., etc.

FOR A FRIEND

Probably a friend that is near and dear to you or perhaps one a little distant; no matter what the case may be or the price, let us suggest something from our stock—say a good, up-to-date Story Book, nicely bound, or Fancy Pack of Cards, Cribbage Board, Whist Markers, Fencing Foils, Poker Sets, a subscription for some Magazine, Moccasins, Snowshoes, Library Table, Billiard Table—for we are complete in many lines suitable for a moderate gift.

TO-day and from this out will be quick selling, which means big crowds.

Our display is extra fine this year. We have many attractions awaiting you—both musical, mechanical and novel. Come and see them. If they're not working, ask to have them made so. It's wonderful what they can do.

ON WINTER RACE TRACKS

Fowler and Ryan Will Open Outlaw Meeting at Newport on Christmas Day.

HORSE KILLED AT NEW ORLEANS
Only One Favorite Beaten, and That Was in Handicap, Which Had General Mix-Up.

Cincinnati, Dec. 5.—After a conference held yesterday between John J. Ryan, the well-known St. Louis horseman, and Frank Fowler, the owner of the Newport (Ky.) track, it was decided to have winter racing at that course.

The meeting will commence on Christmas Day and run on indefinitely. Three hundred and four hundred dollar purses will be given.

The betting shed as well as the grand stand will be inclosed with glass. Mr. Fowler will be manager and the other officials will be in place in a few days.

Mosca, Fowler, and Ryan proposed to run the track as an outlaw affair, not under the control of the Western Jockey Club.

They propose to put a lot of money behind the movement, and a forty book, in fact, there is apt to be racing the next day at Newport.

The central figure behind the movement, John J. Ryan of St. Louis, was one of the prominent bookmakers during the recent meeting here at Latona. He is a man of considerable wealth, and there are rumors why he should be anxious to direct a ship at the New Orleans Jockey Club.

There is a meeting in New Orleans, which Ryan was refused permission to book at Newport, because of a supposed infidelity to him by the officials of the Western Jockey Club, and he is determined to get even by opening the Newport track.

Certain it is that there is little chance of Newport opening with a sanctioned meeting. As an outlaw track it might have a chance to prosper, providing suitable purses, and as a matter of fact, it is not a bad thing to have a winter track in the city.

It would not be a hard matter to get horses, and there would be no betting positions, nevertheless, and winter racing is a matter of fact, and it is not to be denied that the winter track is a thing to be considered.

Newport was originally intended for a winter track by its promoter, the late S. S. Sharp. Steam pipes are laid all around the track to prevent the ground from freezing. The betting shed and grand stand were put in place.

Incidents at New Orleans.
New Orleans, Dec. 5.—Jack Demme was the only beaten favorite. In the last race he was beaten by a long head. It was found necessary to shoot him. There was a general mix-up in the handicap race, selling, 1 mile, 100 lbs. The winner was a long shot, and the race was a general mix-up.

ONE MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Isaac Jenkins Used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Now He Advises Others to Do Likewise.

How often have you heard the remark, "I would like to eat some of that, but I am afraid to." You may depend on it the person who talks that way is living in constant terror of his stomach; that the pleasure of eating is spoiled by the fear of what may follow.

Thousands of people live and die in that hopeless condition. They are victims of their own superstitions. They refuse to believe the testimony of thousands of others who have suffered similarly, but who have used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and been completely and permanently cured.

Isaac Jenkins of 116 Dundas-street, Toronto, is one of the latter, and he says:

"I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for one year and I could get no relief. I would have a sour stomach and heartburn and could never touch any rich food. I was told Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets would cure me, and I tried them. I only had need to use half a box when I was cured."

You can find a dyspeptic who has ever used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

man, Piquette, Ontario, Ace of Snades and Lumbermen also used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and were cured.
