Pari-Mutuels Afford the Only London Skips Put Out Means of Speculation at Walker Trophy Event in Shortship Meeting. First Day's Play.

TORONTO, Aug. 11.—The twenty-seventh annual Dominion lawn bowling tournament commenced this afternoon with play going on simultaneously on eleven Toronto lawns. One hundred and ninety-two rinks, representing the cream of Canada's bowlers, faced the primary competition of the tournament, which is fifteen more than last year, and before the week is out fully a thousand bowlers are expected to compete in the various competitions. From the record entry of 209 rinks there have only been ten defaulters in the first day's play. There were a number of surprises, H. R. Polson, of West Toronto, winner of the Walker trophy as the preliminary round when J. R. Vander 1918 tournament, falling away in the preliminary round when J. R. Jackson Gratten went to the post a heavy favorite in the 2:13 pace, when Amardale failed to stay. He reeled off three heats, and came out a winner against some keen competition from Captain Heir-at-Law.

Willington, the favorite in the 2:23 pace, won just as easily. In fact, it looks as if Billy Snow had a real pacer in the son of Bonington.
