CITIZENS THIS IS THE LAST APPEAL TO YOU

Will You Be Among the Missing in the Published List of Sox Donators?

WORLD'S CAMPAIGN ENDS

Think of the Firing Line, Study Its Hardships and Send Gifts to This, "Sox Day."

St. Valentine's was certainly no overlooked by the "Sox Sisters" yesterday, hundreds of donations coming in from them, and from the Sox Brothers, too-warm, woolly sox, checolate, gum, tobacco, cigarets and soap poured in in great quantities from early morn till eve, as a final expression of good will towards the great World "Sox Day" campaign which closes today. But remember-it does not close till tonight. You still have all day and this evening to do your bit-and only you will feel sorry when the announce ments are made that you have not been responsible for one of the hundreds of pairs which will be shipped from The World Building direct to the boys in the trenches.

Are You Among Them?

This has been a wonderful month in The World knitting-room. A group of patriotic women arrived on the opening day and have come every day since to help along this work. Donations big and little have come from Saskatoon, South Carolina and North Bay and from a hundred other points along the railway lines of Ontario. Large firms have given generously of their wares and local artists have entertained the knitters. Everyone has done everything in his or her power to make the campaign a success, and, best of all it is a success—thanks to the combined efforts of all interested.

Closes Tonight.
