BIG HYDRO RALLY FOR MAJOR LEWIS

Enthusiasm Runs High at Crowded Meeting in Aura Lee Rink.

A great hydro meeting was held last night in Aura Lee rink, Avenue road, where a large mixed gathering of the electors of Northeast Toronto heard the cause of the Conservative party upheld by many well-known men on the political platform, all of whom spoke highly of Major Lewis, the Conservative candidate. Among those on the platform were: Major W. F. Nickle, jr., D.S.O., M.C., son of W. F. Nickle of Kingston, and the youngest major in the Canadian army; Major Davis, mayor of Oakville, vice-president of the Hydro Power Association of Ontario West, and member of the Hydro Railway Association of Ontario; McGregor Young, K.C.; H. H. Richardson, Capt. Joe Thompson, M.L.A., and Major Lewis, while the chair was taken by Mr. Russell Nasmith.

Major Nickle Cheered.

Major Nichols, who opened the evening, met with a tremendous reception, He stated that he knew Bill Kippen well, and could not understand why he was a Liberal following in the footsteps of those who were out for free trade and reciprocity.

The speaker added that, some time ago

The speaker added that, some time ago he was at a luncheon in the city, where Sir Adam Beck stated that, while he was in England, he had many offers to remain and develop the water-power of that country, all of which he refused in order to return to Ontario and continue his work for Ontario and the Hydro.

There was much applause as Major Nichol resumed his seat.

Mc3-legor Young stated that it was the first time he had appeared on a political platform in Toronto. Personally, he had no political ambition.

platform in Toronto. Personally, he had no policical ambition.

The farmers, he said, represented no one but themselves. They were not a class or labor government, and he assured the audience that farmers in the north were already beginning to see that their votes had been obtained by false pretences. They were getting their eyes open. The present government was just a party of men who looked after their own interests, while the premier and his leaders were directed by the co-operative associations.

leaders were directed by the co-operative associations.

Mayor Stoddart said that the Conservative party lost the last election thrubeing too cocksure, and urged everyone to come out and vote. Regarding the gratulty question, he thought that paying a straight $2,000 to conscripts or anyone else was absurd. He thought the right line to take was the support of the widows and orphans and increased pensions for totally disabled. This election, he urged, was not being fought on soldier problems. Mayor Davis, of Oakville, in upholding Hydro, said that steam roads were too expensive for short distance work, and while most people could not afferd motors, the only means of travel at hand were the graduals which would solve the problem of transport.

Ovation For Lewis.

Much applause greated Major Lewis as he rose to speak. He said he was pleased to be standing for the party that had made Canada prosperous, and commenting on the insurance act, said it had been a great thing for the working man. Every progressive measure on the statute books had been placed there by the Conservatives.

INTEREST GROWS IN EVANGELISTIC WORK

Emphasis upon the evangelistic polcy of the Methodist Church as "sans and steady" was placed in the report which Dr. T. Albert Moore, as general secretary, made vesterday to the opening session in the Wesley build-ing of the General Board of Evangel-ism and Social Service of the Meth-odist denomination.

Dr. Moore, in his review of the work of the past year, remarked upon the growing interest which the public was manifesting in evangelistic enterprise.

Delegates to the conference are present to the number of 35 and represent every province in the Dominion. Yesterday's session was passed in the receiving of reports of field secretaries, indicating the completion of a splendid year's service. The conference will be in committee today and will consider the reports in detail.

New York, Nov. 2.—With tooting horns and the cackle of rattlers, New York city poured out into the streets late today for its time-honored election night celebration—for New York always celebrates, whoever the winner and whoever the loser.

But hardly had the streets been filled than they were emptied again—or almost emptied—for the skies opened and the rain descended by far more than the proverbial bucketful.

HOLD INQUEST OVER YOUNG BOY'S DEATH

Testimony Shows Jack Whitehouse Died of Suffocation in the Hospital.

The post-mortem testimony given at the inquest last night revealed the fact that Jack Whitehouse, aged 8, while recovering from an amesthetic in the Sick Children's Hospital, following an accident when the motorcycle on which he was a passenger, struck the rear of W. Sharp's car, at the corner of Davenfort and Bedford roads, died from suffocation on Oct. 25.

He vomited and aspirated the food into his lungs, particles of which, together with a secretion of the stomach, lodged in the lungs, choking the air passages.

Dr. Boyd worked over the boy for an hour, but his efforts were not sufficient to prevent death.

Dr. James, resident surgeon, administered the anaesthetic of ether-chloride and ether, while Dr. Z. Heuther performed the operation of sewing up the wound or friction burn on the boy's right ankle, caused by the accident.

A local anaesthetic could have been used, but the recovery from the wound would have been prolonged greatly, stated Dr. James, and the patient needed an anaesthetic of that kind.

The inquest was adjourned by Dr. Mc-Callum until Nov. 23.

NOISY CELEBRATION IN NEW YORK CITY

Cabarets and Restaurants Are Jammed in Spite of the Eighteenth Amendment.

But hardly had the streets been filled than they were emptied again—

Crowds which had gathered in front of bulletin boards broke and ran, swent along by a street wind the street. of bulletin boards broke and ran, swept along by a furious wind that whipped the raindrops under umbrellas with merciless force. The few score, however, that stood their ground on Park Row, at 8.45 o'clock, saw the tower of The New York World building suddenly illuminated with red lights—the signal that that newspaper, a staunch supporter of Governor Cox a staunch supporter of Governor Cox, had conceded the election of his rival.

About the same time, The New York Sun, which has championed the Republican banner, claimed a landslide for Senator Harding. The New York Times, however, which has supported the Democratic presidential nominee, at 9.15 o'clock had not accepted early returns as indi-cating his defeat.

The New York Tribune, Republican,

Great Time on Broadway.

New York City showed that it was celebrating chiefly by the racket that it made. All day long street urchins made carnival, and every once in a while some one got hurt in the play, and then an upstanding fight ensued, several times requiring summoning of police reserves. Broadway—on which every New York celebration is staged—was the centre of the merrymaking. Theatres reported record crowds, and the 18th amendment notwithstanding, cabarets and restaurants were jammed doorful.

Along the east side and Socialists' districts, crowds gathered to receive election returns, raised mighty mouts when figures flashed on screens showed that Eugene V. Debs, Socialist presidential nominee, and federal prisoner at Atlanta, was sharing in the distribution of votes. Smith Leads Miller.

At an early hour this morning the contest for the governorship of New York was very close. With returns from 1743 districts still missing, Smith's lead had been cut down to 3031.

The vote in 5565 up-state and New York City districts was: Smith 1,039,169; Miller 1,036,138.

United States Senator Jas. W. Wadsworth, jr., was leading his Democratic opponent, Lieut.-Governor Harry C. Walker by 232,931 votes.

Republicans also gained three seats in the congressional fights in New York State, electing their candidates in the fifth, eighth and ninth districts, which are now represented by Democrats. Virtually complete returns from 34 out of 43 congressional districts, indicate the election of 22 Republicans and 12 Democrats. Smith Leads Miller.
