On Eve of Big Success?

The apparent inference to be drawn from these announcements and events is that the world is on the eve of some staggering alteration \wedge in the course of the var. The other alternative is that they are put forth for the purpose of de-ceiving the enemy. A quasi-hint that Japanese troops would be lined up with the Grand Alliance at the Darda-nelles, may also have some founda. tion of fact, or it may have been given out also with the intention of deceiving the enemy and of worrying the German general staff, which would be inclined to proceed with great caution till it had time to learn thru its spies whether any Japanese soldiers were, say, in Russia, ready to assist These new positions are better
