THE POPE WILL WRITE

ROME, May 25.—The report that the Pope will send a special message to the people of Nova Scotia is being widely spread, but it is not true. The Pope has never before written to any of our people, and it is not likely that he will do so now.

NEWS FROM NORTH END

A Pleasant Surprise. Rev. A. T. Dykeman, who has resigned from the pastorate of the Fairville Baptist church, was surprised last evening when a large number of his congregation headed by George Fowler, the choir leader, called at the parsonage with baskets of good things, and took charge.

A Slight Fire. An alarm from box 123 brought the North End fire department on this morning for a slight fire on the roof of the Samuel Oddy's grocery store on Main street. The blaze was soon extinguished.

Leak, or No Leak? According to the stories of a number of passengers, there was a leak in the steamer Crystal Stream, on Victoria Day.

The Late F. B. Wade. The gentleman pictured above is a well known steamboat man, and says that a leak had occurred in the steamer, the passengers would have been allowed to stay on board the steamer.

THE COUNTRY MARKET

Bright Prospect for a Good Supply in All Lines Tomorrow. The prospects of a good market tomorrow are bright. Lamb is coming in plentifully and is now of a size that makes it fairly reasonable. Beef is very scarce and consequently the price is firm.

THE MILLS OF PRICE BROS. Destroyed by Fire—Moncton Baseball—A Wedding. MONCTON, N. B., May 25 (Special).—The Moncton Express from Montreal this morning was delayed four or five hours at Amqui by a big conflagration in the mill.

A MAYOR'S WOES. City Hall Given Up to the Artist of the Brush. Mayor White can now sympathize with the Times.

OUR ENVOIUS NEIGHBORS. (St. John Star). The new press for the Times has arrived on three or four little chances that the printer will be able to use the sidewalk near the corner of Canterbury and Church streets for some time to come.
