THE GEO. DIXON-MURPHY BOUT

The boxing world shows few events of importance in sight for the next six days. The George Dixon-Tommy Murphy six-round mill, billed for Philadelphia tonight, a few years ago might have created a furore in boxing circles. Now, however, Little Chocolate has reached the stage where he is considered an old man in the game, and consequently little interest centres in the event. The bout is called a testimonial for Dixon, but putting the ex-champion against a tough little fellow who aspires to the world's championship, can hardly be judged as anything soft for the boxer who was once king of them all. But it is really in line only with some of the bouts put on by Philadelphia clubs in the past. No other city in the country would have stood for the bouts in which Joe Grim has figured.

If Philadelphia people wanted, as they now claim, to see how good George Dixon really is, another boy who would have been better suited for the occasion might have been selected to box the little black man. A win for Murphy over Dixon will be nothing to his credit. To be defeated by him would be a sad blow.

GANS WAS NOT FIT FOR FIGHT

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18—There is still a difference of opinion among fight followers in Baltimore as to whether Joe Gans has gone back or not. In his bout last Friday night the colored champion was beaten to a frazzle by Mike (Twin) Sullivan, and he could not have gone a round further. Gans was mighty lucky when Referee James O'Hara announced the decision a draw.

Joe Gans made the common mistake of champions of holding his opponent too cheap Gans, it is true, weighed in under 135 pounds but that weight was not made by legitimate work, but was brought about by Turkish baths and physics and left Gans in a weakened condition, which manifested itself before the fight was half over.

As is well known, Gans has not been in training since his fiasco with Jimmy Britt last March, and it would have required a long, slow preparation to put him in shape to meet a man of Sullivan's calibre. Instead the champion's training was of the hastiest sort, and, if reports are true, of the mixed ale order. Manager Al. Herford knew that Gans was not in fit condition and had it been possible he would have called the fight off last Wednesday night.

Gans evidently thought he could put his man out with a punch at any time and that there was no need to train. Twin Sullivan is always in shape. He was strong and hard as iron and at the end of the fifteen rounds looked as if he was fit to go fifteen more, while Gans was completely fagged out. Sullivan, in addition, had the advantage of height and reach.

Gans's initial round showed that he thought it would take only one punch to put Sullivan to sleep. The men had sparred but a few seconds when Gans whipped over his famous right and grazed Sullivan's chin. Sullivan was knocked down clean and seemed dazed, while Gans coolly turned back to the prostrate fighter as if he expected him to be counted out. Gans was badly fooled. Sullivan came back. Gans landed frequently, but his blows lacked their old time steam and the former swiftness and snap of the champion was gone. That Sullivan earned a decision is the opinion of most who saw the fight, but as to whether Gans is still as good as formerly when properly trained is a question for heated argument.

FOOTBALL NOTES

In America there are 125,000 men in college and 776,000 boys in high and preparatory schools. A statistician has estimated that there are 7000 "regular" college football players and 17,000 in the schools.

Pennsylvania has a Jap candidate out for football honors. His name is Shunzo Takaki, and he is an expert on Jiu-Jitsu. He cannot teach Stevenson anything on questionable tactics.

Eekersall of Chicago University has a new wrinkle for kickers in the shape of a square-toed shoe.

There will be 392 games this year among the college teams, 248 among the larger teams in the east, and 144 games in the west.

Under the new Princeton-Cornell agreement, the Tigers and Ithacans will meet at Princeton this year, at Ithaca in 1906, and in New York in 1907.

Annapolis has seven of last year's team on hand. Paul Dashiel will again be head coach. The army has lost stronger men than those eliminated from the navy's team by graduation.

Coach Stagg of Chicago is out with an innovation. He expects to outdo all his former efforts in an athletic way by adopting an all-season secret practice at the Midway Field. From now until turkey day he will close the gates to Marshall Field for the greatest part of every afternoon's work. Spies have never been very troublesome to the Midway professor, and his latest move has not been caused by fear of prowlers from the camp of his rival, though it is time. Wisconsin has been represented every day among the spectators, who line the field, it is said, with men who have taken down in notes what apparently they could not remember.

SPECIAL TERMS

"And have you any special terms for summer girls when they come in a party?" asked the pretty brunette in the mountain hotel.

"Yes, indeed," responded the clerk suavely.

"And what are they?"

"'Peaches' and 'dears.'"

WILL STOP THE BOUT

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 19 — The Wild-Ruhlin bout, advertised to take place here next Tuesday night, will be prohibited by the county authorities, notwithstanding Mayor Morris has issued a permit for the fight. On the advice of the county attorney, Sheriff Ettery today served notice on the promoters of the fight that arrests would be made if the men came into the ring.

TWIN SULLIVAN IS HOT AFTER BATTLING NELSON

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18 — Mike (Twin) Sullivan of Boston, since his excellent showing against Joe Gans last Friday night, will shortly leave this city for the Pacific coast, where he will make every effort to get on a match with Battling Nelson. The Boston man thinks that it is the unanimous opinion of those who witnessed the battle Friday night that he bested Gans, despite the referee's decision, and he is going after Nelson armed with this belief.

He intends to post a forfeit of $1000 as soon as he reaches Frisco, to assure the conqueror of Jimmy Britt that he is sincere in seeking a match with him. Sullivan also states that as he bested Gans the colored lad will have to wait until after he meets Nelson before he agrees to meet him again. Sullivan has received telegrams from Frisco clubs offering him a match with Jimmy Gardner, and he will accept an offer to clash with Gardner after he arrives there if Nelson refuses to talk business with him.

WILL AUDUBON BOY BREAK THE WORLD'S RECORD?

Will Audubon Boy break the world's pacing record at Readville Thursday afternoon? If the conditions are favorable and no accident befalls the chestnut stallion between now and the time of the trial it is almost certain that the pacing record of 1.59¼, made by Star Pointer over the Readville track, Aug. 28, 1897, will be wiped out. Audubon Boy's mile in 2.00¼ at Syracuse, made under unfavorable conditions, and with no intention to string the great pacer out to his limit, convinced every one who saw the performance that the grandson of Alcyone is the fastest pacer that has yet appeared on the turf.

The Syracuse mile was simply preparatory to the supreme effort to be made by the stallion Thursday. Both James Gatcomb, the pacer's owner, and Billy Andrews, who will drive him, feel absolute confidence that he will accomplish the difficult feat set for him. The only doubt they had was whether Audubon Boy would come out all right after the stiff mile that it was deemed necessary to give him last week to stay him up for the final effort this week. As he came out all right after a mile right at the two-minute mark, there is little doubt that his "bad" leg will stand up the remainder of the season.

Both Audubon Boy and Sweet Marie did fine work at Syracuse. The mare easily defeated that good trotter, Dr. Strong, stepping one mile in 2.05, the second fastest mile by a trotter this year. The daughter of McKinney was never as good as now, and if she does not equal or beat Alix's record, her trainer, Alta McDonald, will be greatly disappointed.

YOUNG CORBETT VS. YOUNG ERNE

"Young Corbett" has been signed by the management of the Douglas A. C., Chelsea, Mass., to fight next Monday night before their club.

The Denverite will probably appear against Young Erne, as Matchmaker Crowley is now away from town to make arrangements with the Quaker boxer.

Kid Goodman has been mentioned as an opponent for "Corbett" in case the deal with Erne falls through.

The bout between "Corbett" and Erne will probably be fought at catchweights, as the former would not be able to make weight.

HOOF BEATS

Ed. Patch, 2.08¼, gives Dan Patch his first 2.10 performer.

The majority of horsemen believe that Audubon Boy would defeat Dan Patch very handily.

Carlo M, 2.09¼, has been killed because of an injured spine.

Tiverton is now quartered in his owner's private stable in New York.

Sweet Marie will put the trotting record of the year well below 2.04 at Readville Thursday.

Nellie Bruce, 2.10¼, was bred to Direct last year, but is not in foal. She is now at Thorndale farm and will be mated with the fast Bingen colt, Henry M. Whitney.

If Cheery Lass, 2.06¼, remains sound, The Broncho, 2.03¼, may not go into winter quarters with the pacing record for mares. The half-brother to King Direct is not far from a two-minute performer.

Lord Direct, by Direct Hal out of Lady of the Manor, 2.04¼, was eagerly watched every time he appeared on the track at Syracuse. He is a grand-gaited fellow and showed speed enough, 2.11¼, to please the critics. Ben White will race him next year.

SCHOLES WILL ROW AGAIN

Lou Scholes, the young Canadian sculler, who won the Diamond Sculls at Henley, last year, has decided, as a result of the repeated efforts to get him to reacind the publicly stated declaration never to row single again, to give any American sculler who wants it an opportunity to meet him next year.

Since Scholes won the greatest of all rowing events in England he has done no single sculling, and because of his attitude it was intimated that he was afraid to meet Frank B. Greer, the American champion. Scholes has rowed only double since annexing the English honor, and ever since Frank B. Greer, the East Boston sculler, won the championship, efforts have been made to get the pair together. The only question now is whether Greer will compete. This oarsman won the amateur championship in senior single sculls this year for the third consecutive time.

WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Miss Thomson Won Yesterday by Default---Playing Yesterday Was Rather Ragged.

Montreal, Sept. 19—(Special)—There were no surprises in the first round of the women's golf championship at Dixie this afternoon and the eight players who will go into the second round are those who were looked upon to win their matches in the first round.

The winners today were: Miss M. Bond, Royal Montreal; Miss L. Young, Royal Montreal; Miss F. L. Harvey, Hamilton; Miss F. N. Greene, Royal Montreal; Miss Mabel Thomson, St. John; Miss F. Phepoe, Hamilton; Miss C. McAnulty, Victoria, and Miss E. Nesbitt, Woodstock.

Miss Thomson won her match by default. She was paired with Mrs. Aubrey Mussen, but the latter was unable to play owing to the illness of a relative.

The pairings for the second round, which will be played tomorrow afternoon, follow: Miss M. Bond vs. Miss L. Young, Miss F. L. Harvey vs. Miss F. N. Greene, Miss Mabel Thomson vs. Miss F. Phepoe, Miss C. McAnulty vs. Miss Nesbitt.

Conditions today were much superior to those of the opening day, yet the golf played was hardly better than that played under stress of weather on Monday. It was probably owing to the strain of the qualifying round that the style of golf was not so good in the first round, at any rate it is quite evident that a majority of those who played yesterday can do better than the cards turned in would indicate. The course was still heavy, but there was a vast improvement on the greens, though it was quite noticeable that the putting was not particularly good in any of the matches.

Miss Harvey, the champion, played with Mrs. Burritt and won by four and two. Her game was not up to her standard and her Toronto opponent also failed to do as well as she might. Miss Harvey played rather ragged golf in some particulars, but her opponent appeared to be affected with a trace of nervousness.

As Miss Thomson's opponent was obliged to default, the St. John player rested and did not have an opportunity to show if she could repeat her splendid performance of the previous day. This afternoon Miss Thomson will meet Miss Phepoe and this should prove to be a great match.

BASEBALL TALK

The Boston players are agreeably surprised at the improvement shown in the first base playing of Grimshaw. He has a great reach and is saving the Boston infielders many wild throws. He is a hard driver, and if he keeps up his present fine work he will be as good a man at first as there is in the big league. Since his return to the game he has acted like a new man, and all for the better.

In losing 38 games by one run, Boston club has made it plain that more speed is needed on the bases, and a more perfect system of sacrifice hitting is necessary.

Cy Young losing 16 games by one run is the limit for hard luck for a pitcher. Mr. Young can still pitch grand ball, but Capt. Collins is saving him for next season.

It's a toss up whether Billy Dineen will ever be right again. Capt. Collins and Dineen himself are about convinced that the great pitcher will never regain the full use of his pitching arm. This would mean the loss of a skilful pitcher and one of the gamest men in the business.

The improved batting form of Buck Freeman and Jesse Burkett increase their chances for remaining in fast company for some time yet. Players of reputation count much as drawing cards long after they have lost their hold as great players.

The chances are that Cy Young will be back at Palo before Oct. 10, as he is anxious to quit as soon as possible.

"But for the fact we have so many double-headers and are in such a bad way for pitchers," said Cy recently, "I would try to get away at once, but I will stay and help out all I can. I hurt my arm in St. Louis on the last trip and don't expect to get right again this season."

Young has pitched only one game in the last three weeks, and with the two old standbys, Young and Dineen, on the hospital list, it's not the same old team. It's the second time in 16 years that Young has complained of being out of shape.

Al Selbach is still limping about with a lame ankle. He was out of the game four weeks three years ago with the same trouble and with the same ankle, and will be of little use to the team the last of the season. As Buck Freeman, Burkett and Grimshaw are playing good all round ball Selbach will not be missed.

The Washington management has offered their boys $1,000 for every position above last they make in the race. This is not a bad idea, and if carried out by every club, would mean more interesting baseball, and keep the team hustling for the best place possible to the end.

KING EDWARD TO GIVE BIBLE

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 19 — Bruton Parish, the historical church of Williamsburg (Va.), the second oldest church, and the church longest in continuous use in the United States, has received the offer of a bible to be donated by King Edward VII.

The church has a letter from the Archbishop of Canterbury in which he says the King wants to donate the bible for use in the Bruton Parish. The holy book will be especially and appropriately bound and prescribed. The royal mark of esteem is to be given by the King in memory of the 300th anniversary of the establishment of Anglo-Saxon civilization and the English church on Virginia's shores. It is to be made particularly for Bruton church because of the fact that Bruton is the official successor of the church at Jamestown.

She—To tell you the truth, you didn't look a bit comfortable in it. It will require time for you to acquire the wholly-at-home appearance of one of those waiters, for instance.
