A RARE GEM.
Lies deep in the ocean
The pearl of great price;
To gain it, how many
Sink in the sea!
But there is a treasure
Which all can obtain;
Tis given to the humble,
But not to the vain.
By searching the Bible
With meekness and care,
True Faith will reveal it
A gem that is rare.
'Tis worn by the angels
The nearest to throne—
The pearl that is brightest—
Religion alone.
O seek for this treasure,
Obtain it and live;
'Twill bring you true pleasure—
Sweet peace it will give;
'Twill grant you admittance,
When Jordan is crossed,
To joys that are perfect,
Forever that last.
The following is from the N. Y. Patriot, which usually confines itself to domestic scandal:—
WANTED A LOAN.
Fine boasts touching Mexico
Are those of Jenny Polk—
But Santa Anna yet makes
The Yankee "walk his chinks."
Polk in his message cast demands—
Involved up to his neck;
Yet Mexico may heed his calls,
By giving him a cheque.
Certificate of Character.—A hoosier was called upon a stand out West, to certify to the character of a brother hoosier. The testimony was as follows:—
"How long have you known Bill Black?"
"Ever since he was born." "What is his general character?" "Letter A, No. 1—'love par a great way, I judge.' 'Would you believe him on oath?' "Yes, Sir—'on or off, or any other way I conclude.' "What, in your opinion, are his qualifications as to good character?" "He's the best shot on our prairie, or in the woods. He can shave the eye-whiskers off a wolf as fast as a sloopin' iron 'll carry a ball. He can drink a quart of grog any day, and chaw tobacco like a horse."
A WOMAN'S REVENGE.—At Barnard Castle market, lately, the butter offered for sale by a woman from the country was seized by the writers, and she herself was led off to the local authorities, for giving short weight. Irritated by the occurrence, she grasped one of the condemned pounds in her right hand, and mounted the nearest weighing scale on the crown of his head to the nose of his neck, holding him by her left hand as in a vice, while conferring upon her recipe this unexpected honor.
RICE WATER.—Rice water, slightly sweetened, forms one of the most grateful and wholesome drinks for the sick; and in health would be both nutritious and agreeable. Children for the first two years would receive scarcely any other food.—Kilton's Practical Medicine.
Scepticism.—"If we are to live after death, why don't we have some certain knowledge of it?" said a skeptic to a clergyman. "Why didn't you have some knowledge of this world before you came into it?" was the caustic reply.

A Noble Fortune Nobly Used.—The Duke de Luynes, who inhabits the Chateau de Nemours, in the environs of Versailles, has recently given a hundred thousand francs to the sufferers by the inundations in France. The Duke de Luynes has an income of 1,500,000 francs a year; and devotes every year 500,000 to deeds of benevolence, and as many more to the encouragement of the fine arts.

NEW GOODS.
THE Subscriber has just received and has for sale, an extensive and varied Assortment of Gold and Silver WATCHES of every description, fitted up in the most approved style; also a quantity of rich and fashionable JEWELLERY, Silver PLATE, Nautical Instruments, &c.—which, together with a large Stock on hand, are offered for sale low for Cash, or approved Paper at three or six months.
He would take this method of returning his sincere thanks to his friends for the liberal support that he has received during the last fourteen years in business, as well as to inform them that having visited London last winter, and Boston and New York this summer, he has entered into new arrangements, by which he will regularly supply with every description of WATCHES, CHRONOMETERS, and all other Goods in his line, which will be sold lower than at any other establishment in this City.
Having purchased, when last in London, a splendid Astronomical CLOCK, and one of Don't's DIPLIDESCOPES, and other Apparatus suitable for correcting and rating Marine Chronometers and completing and adjusting Nautical Instruments, and having expended a large sum to make his establishment efficient and accommodating to the Public; he would now cherish the hope of receiving a continuance of that patronage and support which the nature of his enterprise would warrant him to expect. He is aware of the opposition that the plain honest trader sometimes meets with from unprincipled and designing men; but the same principle which has guided him through evil report and good report, will govern him in his future efforts to serve the Public and himself conjointly.
Chronometers and every description of Watches and Clocks, Jewellery, &c. repaired on moderate Terms.
JAMES AGNEW, Watchmaker, &c. King-street N. B.—Shipmasters are respectfully invited to an examination of the above-named CLOCK and Apparatus for rating Chronometers; and their patronage and support are solicited.
