The Royal Mail steamer Europa arrived at Halifax on Tuesday morning, in about 9½ days from Liverpool, with the English mail of the 18th inst. She had 106 passengers, 12 of whom landed at Halifax. The Europa experienced very rough weather during the passage.

Trade in Manchester was less active, and prices were in favour of buyers.

The rage for emigration is unabated in Ireand. A letter from Cork, published in the loublin Evening Mail, remarking the passage.

The definition of the unfortunate weekend arrived beron Sunday in the steamer Pilot, from Westmareland, and left this morning in the steamer Pilot, from Westmareland, and left this morning in the steamer Creofe for Portland, returning to their homes.

The Halifax Colonist publishes an extract from a letter from C. D. Archinald, Feyn, dated London, 17th Oct. 1851. The following is the condition of the mail officers to Boston and Halifax.

Mr. McCormick's Reaper.—Mr. McCormick, the inventor, is reported to have contracted in England specially to advocate, and one would suppose that the would rather be hundred machines, to be in readiness here.

A letter from Cork, published in the loublin Evening Mail, remarking the passage.

We have done him manufactures of my assistance, but advocate, and one expressive language of commercial to be commercial. MR. McCommer's Reaper.—Mr. McCormick, the inventor, is reported to have contracted in England for the manufacture of five hundred machines, to be in readiness before next harvest, at which time he intends visiting England to dispose of them. He has also a very extensive establishment engaged in manufacturing them in Chicago, Ili. During the fall of 1850, he manufactured one thousand six hundred, principally for the Western trade.

The British residents of New-York have made up a subscription for the purpose of presenting a silver medal to each officer and seaman engaged in Mr. H. Grinnell's noble expedition in search of Sir John Franklin.

Ex-President Tyler has written a letter to Calderon de la Barca, the Spanish Minister, sol e ting his intercession for the release of all the Cuban prisoners. Mr. Tyler says if a sacrifice was wanting to deter others from the commission of a similar offence, it has been offered up. The vengeance of a great State has fallen terribly and fatally, and to restore the small number now in custody to their friends and homes, would speak a more effective tale than would ever issue from the dungeon or the gibbet.

Lower Cove Church.—We take the following description of this fine Church edifice from the Church Witness of Wednesday last.

With respect to the edifice itself, much credit is due to Mr. Stead, the Architect, who, while small means, has contrived to crede a Church so architecturelly correct of the description and other Irish patriots. It was largely attended, which has been adopted; viz., that of the description of the control of the con
