IWENTY-SIX TIMES OPERATED ON; ONE OF FIRST OF CANADA'S WOUNDED; BOOSTS THE LOAN

This picture shows "Jock" Waddell, "the cheeriest Veteran in Canada," reading over a Victory Loan prospectus with one of the canvassers. This soldier was one of the first to enlist in the first battalion, first division. He was among the first to be wounded and since that time has undergone twenty-six surgical operations. In spite of his tribulations he is one of the cheeriest "boosters" for the Victory Loan.

On Friday evening a memorial servine for Lieutenant Allen Otty, who was killed in action, October 30, was held the services.

EVERY DOLLAR YOU

What money have you in hand? What What money have you in hand? What securities or property can you borrow against? How much can you save by wearing old clothes, old boots, old dresses, by being frugal in the matter of food, and by refraining from expenditure on pleasure? When you have decided on the answers to these questions, draw out your money that is now in the bank, add to your money in hand what you can borrow against your securities or you can borrow against your securities or property, and against your future sav-ings. Realize your individual responsibility and invest the total sum you

The Victory Loan. CAN SCRAPE TUGETHER It is ordained, says the British premier, that we shall not reach the golden era of peace save along a path of gold, cemented with human blood. Not yet You should lend to the government. Are you going to help your country by investing in the Victory Loan? Or are you going to help Germany by keeping your money in your pocket? For remember that

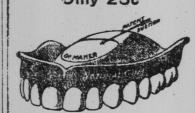

Your Money Cannot Be Neutral.
Use it to defeat Germany. And use it now. Your countrymen are giving their lives. You are asked only to lend Whatever way you look at it the grand patriotic drawing works for the war. Practically the only expense is the three hundred and the one hundred dollar Victory Loan war bonds. And they are not really an expense as the money paid to the government for them will be used for war purposes. All that is left goes to the Red Cross and the navy, both necessary was efforts. sary war efforts.

"A Man's Room" is Synonymous with Comfort

Somehow, we always associate "a man's room" with downright comfort—easy chairs, soft couches, thick rugs, and, of course, a comfortable, restful bed. A big majority of the men who have earned the right to enjoy these pleasures, sleep on

The Quality Mattress

After a hard day's work at office or factory, how restful and soothing is the billowy softness of the "Ostermoor."

How it supports the tired muscles, lulls one into quiet sleep, from which you awaken refreshed in mind and body.

Surely $25 is a small sum to invest in so much rest and comfort—remembering too that every "Ostermoor" will give at least 25 years of ideal service.

That's $1 a year or less than 2c. a week. Worth it—isn't it? Ask your dealer to show you the "Ostermoor"-you'll
