JANUARY.—As a general thing it may be said that Canadian farmers work too hard. Our seasons are so short, help so scarce, and so much to do, that it is almost impossible to find time for mental improvement and the cultivation of social feelings. Work without recreation produces dullness. We all need relaxation, and we all take it one way or another. Would it not be well to find it by visiting a little more among our brother farmers? Not visits of mere formality, but of cordiality and exchange of thought.
