

COURT CASE IS LIKELY OVER CHAPLIN BREAK

Family Skeletons Rattled as Counter-Statements Made

Canadian Press Despatch. LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4.—Overtures for a truce between Charles Chaplin and his estranged wife, having failed, they settled down today for a final fight in court, after an exchange of statements which brought some of the family skeletons of the luxurious closets of the film comedian's Beverly Hills mansion.

Chaplin late last night, issued a statement in which he denied Mrs. Chaplin's charges of cruelty. He declared he had opened his eyes and not intellectual, and of his calling her Mrs. Chaplin. He also charged that she had abused the privilege of limited credit he had granted her in the shops and cafes of Los Angeles.

CALED HER "YELLOW" Shortly after this statement was issued, Mrs. Chaplin countered with one in which she accused the film comedian of avoiding her because she was "not intellectual" and of her calling family "yellow" and her friends "woman."

Money doesn't always bring happiness, she said. "The fact that he has given me money and arranged credit at the stores, was merely his method of attempting to console me for his frequent absence from me, and the babies. Nor does his furnishing me with money and credit, mean that he was a good husband or a good father."

The latest break followed a conference between the two, Mrs. Chaplin and Mr. Chaplin, at which an effort was made to learn what kind of a property settlement would be necessary to keep the case out of court. No announcement was made, but the no agreement was reached. George Beebe, representing Mrs. Chaplin, has been talking about sums in excess of $100,000.

ONLY WANTS SEPARATION Mrs. Chaplin left the Beverly Hills home of the moving picture star Tuesday and announced she would never return. This followed an early morning party at the home which ended when Chaplin ordered his wife to return the guests out of the house.

Trolley Wire Fixed; Men Entertained A street railway trolley wire broke in Douglas avenue last night near the corner of Alexander street. The break was noticed by a resident in that vicinity, who immediately telephoned to headquarters and men were sent to the scene. There was no interruption to traffic, as cars coasted past the broken wire. The citizen who reported the break was so pleased with the quick response of the workmen, he entertained the men after they had performed their work to coffee and sandwiches.

Letters To The Editor

ALL ABOUT A POST Editor Times-Star: Sir,—One of the poets belonging to the Power Commission was obstructing the entrance to my property. I concluded it would be better to have it removed even if I had to pay the cost. I wrote a letter to the Power Commission to this effect June 15. After waiting until the end of August the pole was removed.

The following is a copy of the bill. One half expense of moving pole at corner of Westmorland Road and Red Head Road.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes Labor 5 men, Materials—Slip 22983, Team and teamster 322, Labor 5 men, Team and teamster 643, Credit slip 3004.

One half total cost I am paying this bill, but it seems to me an injustice. In future, anyone owning a vacant city lot, who finds one of these poles obstructing the try of the lot, will undoubtedly be expected to pay a part of the cost of removal.

In my case, looking at it from an investment point of view, $17.22 at 5 per cent will cost me a perpetual charge of eighty eight cents a year. My cost of no Hydro.

Yours truly ALEX TAYLOR Kane's Corner, Dec. 1, 1926

Roy A. Willett, secretary of the Civic Power Commission, when asked about this matter said Mr. Taylor had been billed for one hour on the actual cost of moving this pole. He said that in Mr. Taylor's letter of June 15, last he had offered to pay half or the whole of the cost of removing the pole. When an investigation was made by the Commission as to the necessity for moving the pole it had been pointed out by Mr. Taylor that this pole interfered with free access to his gasoline pump, which had been placed some time after the pole had been erected.

Action had not been taken sooner to remove the pole because it was thought that if the extension was made to East Saint John it might be possible to have removed this pole at no expense to Mr. Taylor.

The cost of moving this pole had been greater than usual as it had been necessary to sink an anchor and guy the pole.

COMMITTEE IS NAMED TO SEE CITY COUNCIL

Playgrounds Association to Take Up Matter of Allison Grounds

The Playgrounds' Association will take up with the City Council the matter of the payment of $500 for the care of the Allison grounds during the last summer. No civic grant was made for this purpose this year and in the previous year the grant of $500 was not sufficient to meet all of the expenses.

The regular meeting of the Association was held yesterday afternoon and arrangements were made for holding the annual meeting on the second Tuesday of January in the evening. Frank T. Lewis, president, was in the chair. Miss E. Heffer, supervisor, reported on the East End Boys' Club, which has been open for the last three weeks with 100 fully paid and 20 partially paid members.

TO INTERVIEW COUNCIL. Jas. H. Hamilton, R. Parker Hamm and Capt. A. J. Mulcahy were named a committee to prepare estimates for the coming year and to take up with the City Council the matter of the payment of $500 for the care of the Allison grounds for the present year, towards which the city had not contributed anything.

Meeting of Clifton Women's Institute CLIFTON, Dec. 3.—The regular meeting of Clifton Women's Institute was held at Mrs. A. R. Wetmore's home on Wednesday afternoon, when roll call was responded to by a Christmas quotation. While needles were pinned in making a quilt, correspondence was read acknowledging receipt by Red Cross of contents of Red Cross boxes, of proceeds of poppy sale by B. E. S. L. and of package of 35 jars of jellies, jams, etc., by Lancaster Hospital.

After the singing of the National Anthem, a social hour was enjoyed, while tea was served by Mrs. A. R. Wetmore and Miss Winifred Wetmore.

ROTARY CLUB TREAT. The nature of the Rotary Club treat for the East End Boys' Club was spoken of. It was thought that this treat would be a dinner and not a gathering in the Opera House and it was decided to defer the Association's treat for the boys until later in the season.
