RANGE
P. R. A. Meet.
Sussex, Aug. 14.—The team representing Westmorland and Kent counties succeeded in carrying off the county match this afternoon, winning the challenge shield presented by J. & A. Colman, Limited, London (Eng.), and $12 presented by the association, Restigouche and St. John counties tied for second place. The scoring was as follows: Westmorland-Kent 734; Restigouche 727; St. John 727; Carleton-Victoria 721; Kings 704.

On account of a scarcity of men from some of the counties it was decided that a combination of two counties would be allowed.
The St. John county team was composed of Capt. L. O. Bentley, 93rd Regt.; Capt. J. Manning, R. O.; J. J. Pinkerton, St. John, R. A.; P. A. C. Brown, St. John, R. A.; Jas. Donnelly, St. John, R. A.; Sgt. J. E. Downey, 2nd Regt.; H. Sullivan, St. John, R. A.; Sgt. E. F. Gladwin, 62nd Regt. Col. J. L. McAvity and Capt. E. A. W. of St. John, arrived in town today and paid a visit to the range.

This evening the members of the association who are attending the meet at the officers in charge gathered for grand sing song and bonfire and made merry for a few hours closing the programme with Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King. Speeches were heard from Col. McAvity and Capt. Smith and there and several of the men contributed numbers of songs and readings.
Nova Scotia Rifle Meet.
Halifax, Aug. 14.—Splendid shooting marked the third day of the Nova Scotia Rifle Association meet. The competition for the Merchants cup occupied early all day and was unpassed. The competitors who finished the first stage will shoot off tomorrow. Captain Bennett, of the 68th Rifles, leads in grand aggregate with a total score of 229. W. H. McPherson won the ladies' match.

Local Show in Fall.
A meeting of the New Brunswick Animal Club was held last evening with president, George F. Allen, in the chair. There were 20 members present, and an interesting discussion took place, lasting an hour and a half, when it was decided to hold a show this fall, following arrangements in the hands of a committee to be appointed later. The operation of all dog fanciers is solicited to make the show in October a success.
Interest will be evidenced as many new imported dogs will be shown for the first time, and winners of previous years will probably have a run for ribbons.
The exhibit of last year held 160 dogs of more than 900 are expected in the fall this year, making a three point or so. At the present rate of increase John will shortly be in line for a ten in or champion show.

ENNIS
In Lancaster.
The Lancaster Tennis Club played tennis with the Carleton Methodist last evening on their own courts in noaster avenue. The different matches were recently contested and watched by assembled members of the club. On conclusion refreshments were served by Mrs. W. O. Dunham, Mrs. G. W. W. and Miss Lawson.
The result of last evening's matches as additional prestige to the Lancaster tennis club, as well as to the Carleton Methodist club, is credited to the Carleton Methodist club. A series of matches with other clubs have been arranged for the near future, and with their completion the tennis club expects to have established a creditable record for the season. The results in last evening's matches which were exclusive men's doubles are as follows:
1.—Lancaster, C. M. Lawson and Miles, 6-4.
2.—Lancaster, H. Sharpe and J. Jack, 6-2.
3.—Lancaster, F. Scully and A. W. 6-4.
4.—Lancaster, C. B. D'Arcy and H. Pearce, 2-6.
5.—Lancaster, P. M. W. and G. W. Scott, 6-4.

Chase Making Trouble?
According to authentic reports that come from Chicago Hal Chase, first baseman of the White Sox, is up to his old tricks. The Chicago baseball chroniclers insist that there is a clique in the team and that Chase has joined hands with Captain Harry Lord in a plot to oust Manager Callahan. Chase has been scored recently for poor playing, and in a published interview Comiskey is quoted as saying that he did not sanction the Chase deal. Comiskey also expresses the opinion that Zeller even up for Chase, would have been a much better deal for the Sox.

Bombardier Wells of England

FROM T. S. ANDREWS

Milwaukee Aug. 13.—There may yet be hope for Bombardier Wells, British heavy-weight champion. He is one of the greatest "in and outers" who ever jumped into the arena of his kind. He has all the science of Jim Corbett when he is in his best, and a greater reach, but he has the stamina. He is too tall for his weight, standing 6 feet 4 inches, while he scales only 186 lbs. At long range fighting he is a wonder, but once his opponent begins to find his weak spot—his stomach—good night.
"Tommy" last to George Carpenter, a Frenchman, the same as he did to Gunboat Smith (by a body blow), but he came back the other day in London and put Pat O'Keefe in a stupor in fifteen rounds, after the latter had given him an argument. Wells has the punch all right and knows how to use it, but that one drawback—his stomach—is often ent regardless of price between now and August 20. When the drafting season begins Dreyfus also will be clamoring for many promising minor league stars.

Diamond Sparks
The Detroit Tigers have purchased "Pug" Cavel, the star pitcher of the Mobile club, of the Southern Association.
Pitcher Len Richey, of the Cubs, has been traded to Kansas City for Pitcher Fred Knebel, who will report immediately, and another player who will report later in the season.
Carl G. Lundgren, a former Toronto pitcher, has been appointed coach of the University of Michigan.
"Old Fox" Griffith has landed another portly pitcher. He said not long ago that he wished he had a whole team of such paws and he seems to be going after them. The new one is Harry Hedgcock from the Virginia League and said to have cost $30,000.
Lawrence, Lowell, Worcester and Portland are putting up a real fight for the New England League pennant.
Lobster of the Phillies, Carey of the Pirates, and Knobly of the Cardinals are leading the National League run-getters.
Jack Fournier, of the White Sox, gives promise of developing into one of the fastest outfielders in the American League.
McCarthy, of Newark, is leading the batsmen, and Wilhelm, of Rochester, is leading the pitchers in the International League.
Another old timer who is slated to return to the big leagues next spring is "Gabby" Street, a veteran backstop, now playing at Chattanooga, in the Southern League. In the spring of 1912 Street went to the Yankees from the Washington Senators, and was expected to do much of the work behind the bat for New York. His throwing arm went back on him and he was traded to Providence during the middle of the season. Providence sent him to Chattanooga in the winter, and he looked as if either of them could have gone just as far as Heinie. The "men behind" just made one error in the twenty frames.

Buying for Pirates
If money could buy a champion ball team, Barney Dreyfus would have a winner all the time. The little Pittsburgh magnate is not discouraged by the failure of the Pirates to get near the top of the heap, and soon, it is said, he will spend more money on new players. The man in the crowd heard the other day that Dreyfus has issued instructions to Scout Billy Murray to buy talent.
Dream That Came True
The London Express says:—
A story of a golfer's dream that came true has reached the "Evening News" from the Rochford Hundred Golf Club, near South-on-Sea.
One of the members, E. Simpson, entering the clubhouse, said he had dreamt the previous evening that he drove a ball over a sheet of water bounded by a high hedge and a wire fence, on the green and into the hole in one shot!
"Of course, that is the Pond Hole, the short fifth," laughed the members.
"What is the betting against your dream coming true?" asked one. "I give you a hundred to one in sovereigns."

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 15.—Mrs. Heman Barrett, 72 years old, fell dead here when she saw Charles Young kill her pet poodle dog. Mrs. Barrett was standing on the sidewalk in front of "The Home" when Young passed and the little dog ran at him barking. He struck the animal with a heavy whip. When the dog was found to have been killed, Mrs. Barrett dropped to the ground and died before assistance could be summoned.
"You are familiar, I presume, with Johnson's Rassellers," observed the Boston girl.
"You must have got him mixed with Frank Jotech," said the St. Louis young man. "Johnson is a prize fighter."
Then silence, like a catapasm, descended to annihilate the impact of the atmospheric concussion.

Judge Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, told one of the other night which leaves no doubt as to the welcome the minister receives in certain quarters when making a pastoral call.
Some time ago, the judge said, the minister was expected to visit the home of a good brother, but it was not absolutely certain that he would come. Finally, however, the dominie appeared and little Willie, who had been watching the gate, sounded the tidings with glad acclaim.
"Whoopee!" joyously cried the youngster, wildly tossing up his hat. "Hip, hip, hurrah! He comes, mamma! Here he comes!"

"You seem very glad to see me, Willie," smiled the preacher, putting the boy on the head and shaking hands with the family.
"You just bet I am!" enthusiastically replied Willie. "I have been afraid all the morning you wouldn't show up!"
"That's awfully nice of you, Willie," said the parson. "Why were you afraid I wouldn't come?"
"Because," was the startling rejoinder of the youngster, "if you hadn't come we wouldn't have chicken for dinner!"
