

The Evening Times Star

VOL. XIX., No. 158

PAGES ONE TO TEN

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1923

TWENTY PAGES—ONE CENT

GENTILE CAFE KEEPER WAS STORE ROBBER

Surprised Police of Brooklyn Worm Out Story of 75 Hold-ups

Mild-mannered, curly-headed Edward Dougherty is Forced to a Confession by Persistence of One of His Victims in Daylight Series

(Canadian Press) New York, April 7.—With the arrest of a mild-mannered curly headed restaurant proprietor of Brooklyn, as the operator in seventy-five hold daylight holdups, the imposition of several heavy sentences, a long series of arrests and a slight shake up at police headquarters, police officials assert that the outbreak of crime was well in hand.

The alleged bandit ace of aces is Edward Dougherty, 27 years of age, whose business associates looked on him as a respectable restaurant keeper, and whose new wife described him as a model of young husband. According to the police Dougherty is the most retiring and courteous young fellow that ever held up a chain store.

BANK REPORT GIVEN DENIAL

London, April 7.—The Canadian Press learns that there is absolutely no foundation for a report in circulation that Lloyd's Bank has been taken over by the Union Bank of Canada. The report is derived in responsible circles here.

PARIS STIRRED BY DEATH OF CARNARON

Paris, April 7.—Lord Carnarvon's tragic death has appealed to the French imagination and has started a controversy over the subject of the hidden magic of the east which the system world held by the exotic have lost completely since the days of the Pharaohs. The Paris press is printing numerous interviews with followers of the occult, with the superstitious, and with Egyptologists of repute, in which the most favored query expounded is as to how far the ends of archeology are justified in despoiling the tombs of the ancient dead.

St. John Operator Gets Promotion

Daniel I. Heneberry, an operator for the C. P. R. Telegraph Co. here, has been promoted to the position of register chief of the same company at Sibley, Ont., and will leave on Tuesday to take over his new duties. Mr. Heneberry and his wife have many friends in St. John who will regret their departure, but the best wishes of many will be extended to him on his promotion.

CANADIAN EDUCATIONISTS AT TORONTO

Canada's finest educationists and thinkers are in attendance at the convention of the National Council of Education. Three of them are shown in the group above. At the left, Sir Robert Falconer, head of Toronto University, in the center, Archbishop Matheson, Anglican Primate of all Canada, and right, Dr. Tor, President of Alberta University.

Utilities Board To Control Stock Sales In New Brunswick

This Province to Have a Blue Sky Law Is Announcement From Fredericton Today.

(Canadian Press) Fredericton, N. B., April 7.—New Brunswick is to have a blue sky law. A bill to be presented to the Legislature next week by the Government has already been drafted. Attorney General Byrne outlined some of its most important provisions today. It will be similar in many respects to blue sky laws in other provinces, and will place control of sale of stock under the Board of Public Utilities.

North End Grocer Tells His Story As a Warning

The Times is in receipt of a letter from a well known grocer in the north end in which he issues a warning to other merchants in the city. He alleges that some time ago a representative of a Toronto firm called at his store, as well as others, and asked permission to place a sewing machine on exhibit, while he canvassed and sold tents, promising to pay the merchant a commission for the privilege.

PRESENTATIONS TO KEITH BARBER

A very handsome pair of hunting boots and a fine smoking set were presented to Keith A. Barber this morning in the Customs House from his former associates there as a token of their respect and regard that he had left them. Mr. Barber was making a visit to the scenes of his former work and was called into the Long Room, C. B. Lockhart, the collector of customs, and the members of the staff gathered from the various parts of the building to join in making the presentation a success.

FRENCH IMPROVE WORK OF BATTLESHIP GUNS

Paris, April 7.—Preliminary tests recently made with the modernized French battleships indicate that the firing elevations have improved from 30 to 40 per cent.

LABOR TROUBLES IN BRITAIN ARE CAUSE OF ANXIETY

Nearly 700,000 Workers are Involved in Disputes With Employers.

Building Trades and Railway Shopmen Face Trouble—Making it Harder Sledding for Bonar Law Government—12,000 Miners Demand Return to Work.

(Canadian Press) London, April 7.—It is said that in Great Britain at present there are nearly 700,000 workers involved in disputes with their employers, and that some 30,000 are already on strike. These include the Welsh miners and the Norfolk farm workers.

GIANTS' LEADERS HAVE BIRTHDAYS

McGraw is Fiftieth and Hughie Jennings 51.

New York Teams in Slugging Rampage—Leonard Freedman Bout Arrangement Denied—Late News of Sport.

(Canadian Press) New York, April 7.—Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants and his first assistant, Hughie Jennings, formerly manager of the Detroit Tigers, celebrated their birthdays today at Memphis, Tenn., on route home with the club, which has been training at that city since its arrival in the south.

THREE BARN AT SEA DOG COVE ARE DESTROYED

Thousands of dollars damage was done by fire last night which destroyed three barns and practically all their contents belonging to Mrs. Herbert Hughes, post mistress of Sea Dog Cove Post Office, near Summerville on the Kingston Peninsula. The blaze started about 8:30 o'clock and the reflection was seen by suburban residents as far as Hampton.

OFFER FOR SLIP.

Swanton Brothers, who have a gear shed at the head of the slip near the western end of Union street, have applied to the Harbor Department for the rental of the slip at an annual charge of $25. As there has been no revenue coming from this slip it is thought that the offer will be favorably considered. This slip was advertised for rent by tenders with some others recently without a bid being received.

As Hiram Sees It

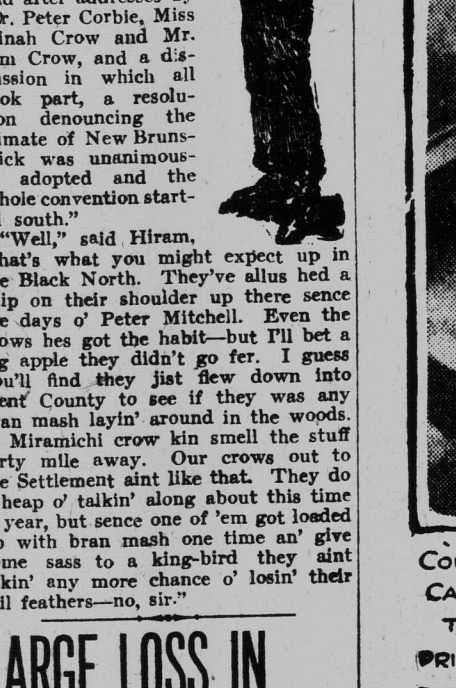

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I read the Chatham World that a convention of Miramichi Crow was held last week in a birch tree, and after addresses by the late Peter Corbin and Mr. Dinah Crow and Mr. Jim Crow, and a discussion in which all took part, a resolution denouncing the climate of New Brunswick was unanimously adopted and the whole convention started south."

LARGE LOSS IN OTTAWA FIRE

Estimate of Half Million Dollars—Hurd & Co.'s, Hugh Carson's and Paquet Co. Premises.

Ottawa, April 7.—The Sparks street chambers were last night completely gutted by fire which for some time threatened the entire block of business offices and stores in Sparks street. The premises of Hurd & Co., sporting goods; Hugh Carson, Ltd., leather goods; Paquet Co., wholesale furs, were completely destroyed, while the tenants of the upper floors lost everything. The damage had not been estimated at an early hour this morning, but unofficial figures run around $500,000.

Love-Match Of Crown Princess Yolanda Is Consummated April 9

CROWN PRINCESS YOLANDA

Rome, April 7.—George Barr McCutcheon to the contrary notwithstanding, it is still rare for a crown princess to marry for love a man of lowly rank. Therefore the surprise occasioned in Europe by the announcement that Crown Princess Yolanda of Italy will wed Count Carlo Calvi di Bergoglio on April 9.

IN A COLLISION NEAR BALTIMORE

Baltimore, April 7.—The Danish steamer Nordvalen was sunk in a collision with the British steamer Barrow in the Chesapeake Channel, about forty miles from Baltimore last night. The Nordvalen ran in about twenty minutes with her superstructure exposed. No lives were lost. Both are freighters.

WEATHER REPORT

Synopsis—A depression which was in the North Pacific states yesterday morning is now centered in Iowa, while pressure is now much above the normal. The weather has been fair over the Dominion with the exception of a few light snowfalls in eastern Quebec, St. Vincent, France, and the barocco was in ballast, coming to Baltimore from New York.

THEY RESIGN GRATUITIES

Statement re Former Grand Trunk Men Now With C. N. R.—A Former St. John Man is One.

Ottawa, April 7.—(Canadian Press) Sir Henry Thornton, president of the C. N. R., announces that former officers of the Grand Trunk Railway Company now employed by the C. N. R. have voluntarily resigned the gratuities which were voted to them when the Grand Trunk was taken over by the government.

RIOT CASES DROPPED; JURY IS CRITICIZED

Marion, Ill., April 7.—All the untied criminal indictments growing out of the Herrin riot were non-prosecuted today following the acquittal, by a jury last night, of six defendants charged with murder in connection with the outbreak.

FRENCH HOPEFUL AS LOUCHEUR IS BACK FROM LONDON

Reported Change in British Opinion Over Ruhr Occupation

(Canadian Press) Paris, April 7.—Low Loucheur, returning from London last evening, disclaimed the views on the reparations question attributed to him in the press, but told the foreign editor of Le Matin that he had brought back a conviction that the British opinion had changed and that the great majority of the public sentiment in England was clearly favorable to France.

WORRIED OVER DEATH OF EARL

Some People Giving Way to Belief in Curse on Invader of Egyptian Tomb.

London, April 7.—The death of the Earl of Carnarvon has caused panic among private collectors of Egyptian antiquities, according to the Daily Express, which declares that some people are sending their treasures to the British Museum in London, fearing to retain them as they believe that Carnarvon was killed by Tutankhamen's "ka"—his soul's double, as it is called.

STILL DRINKING IN CONSTANTIOPLE

Another Respite of Two Weeks from Enforcement of Prohibition.

Constantinople, April 7.—Another fortnight's respite from the enforcement of prohibition has been proclaimed. The suspicion is gaining ground that enforcement will never actually be applied in Constantinople. The evasive tactics by the "swart" will be used until the new assembly meets, when an effort to repeal the law will be made.

WILL GO ON WITH WORK

London, April 7.—A despatch to the Times from Cairo referring to the natural curiosity as to what effect Lord Carnarvon's death will have on the work now in progress, says: "It is understood that nothing is to be allowed to interfere with the completion of the work, which was so dear to the heart of Carnarvon that, in fact, it is to be carried out as a memorial to him." It adds that Howard Carter will continue the excavation work as previously.

JUVENILE TEMPLARS

Thorne Lodge Juvenile Temple met in Thorne Lodge hall last night with Miss Marion Brown acting as superintendent. There were about thirty of the juveniles present to greet the grand superintendent of Juvenile work, Mrs. B. L. Kirkpatrick. At present this is the only juvenile temple in St. John, but it is expected that one will be organized by Dominion Lodge in the near future. The officers of Thorne Lodge Juvenile are: Chief Templar, Margaret Kingston; vice-templar, Olive Wannamaker; secretary, Janet Thorne; marshal, Ruth Wannamaker; D. M., Austin Thorne; chaplain, Geneva Case; guard, Ernest McInnes; sentinel, Ralph Wannamaker; treasurer, William Thorne.