of all other bicycle dealers. The wheels we handle are of PROVED WORTHINESS. Who keeps a wheel equal to the Cleveland bicycle? No one. Who has a wheel to come up to the Oxford? No one. We have just received a big shipment of Cleveland at special prices. These will go at reduced prices.

We do Bicycle Repairing in all its branches.

Arrora Floyd.

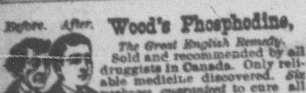

BY MISS M. E. BRADDOCK.

The whole affair was so sudden that these very busy families had scarcely recovered from their surprise at reading a certain paragraph in the left-hand column of the Times, announcing the marriage of Archibald Martin Floyd, Banker, of Lombard street and Falden Woods, to Elizabeth, only surviving daughter of Captain Prodder, when the bridegroom's traveling carriage dashed past the Gothic lodge at the gates, along the avenue, and under the great stone portico, at the side of the house, and Elizabeth Floyd entered the banker's mansion, nodding good-naturedly to the bewildered servants, marshaled into the hall to receive their new mistress.

The banker's wife was a tall young woman of about thirty, with a dark complexion, and great flashing black eyes that lit up a face which might otherwise have been unnoticeable into the splendor of absolute beauty.

Let the reader recall one of those faces whose sole loveliness lies in the glorious light of a pair of magnificent eyes, and remember how far they surpass all others in their power of fascination. The same amount of beauty flattered away upon a well-shaped nose, rosy glowing lips, symmetrical forehead, and delicate complexion, would make an ordinary lovely woman; but concentrated in one nucleus, in the wonderful luster of the eyes, it makes a divinity, a Circe. You may meet the first day of your life, the second, once in a lifetime.

Mr. Floyd introduced his wife to the

THE TRUE RELIGION

IS THAT LET DOWN FROM HEAVEN BY THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY.

USELESS HUMAN MAKESHITS.

The East is, says Dr. Talmage, the World Needs a straight Up and Down Religion—How the World's Character is Built—Wherein God's Principle is a Practical Importance.

Washington, Aug. 5. — From Tromsø, Norway, where Dr. Talmage is now staying, he sends the following, in which he shows that the world can never be benefited by a religion of human manufacture, which easily yields to one's surroundings, but that it must be a religion that comes from heaven: text, Amos vii, 8. "And the Lord said unto me, Amos, what seest thou?"

And I said, A plumb line.

The solid masonry of the world has for use a fascination. Walk about some of the triumphal arches and the cathedrals 400 or 600 years old, and see them stand as erect as when they were built, walls of great masonry, and not bending a hair's breadth, for centuries.

Quarter of an inch this way or that, so greatly honored were the masons who built these walls that they were free from taxation and called "free" masons. The trowel gets most of the credit for these buildings, and its clear ringing on stone and brick has sounded across the ages.

But there is another importance as to the masonry of the world, and that is the masonry of the soul. It is the masonry of the soul that is the masonry of the soul.

It is the masonry of the soul that is the masonry of the soul.

It is the masonry of the soul that is the masonry of the soul.

It is the masonry of the soul that is the masonry of the soul.
