President Peixoto Erasing Enemies With the Axe.

OPPOSING LEGISLATORS REMOVED

By the Process of Shortening Them by the Head.

The Trunks Carted to the Cemetery Daily—Scenes of Cruelty and Tyranny—Everybody Suspected is Carefully Watched—Mello Meditates Making Another Move.

Montevideo, Oct. 21.—Advices from Rio de Janeiro indicate that President Peixoto proposes to conduct the campaign against the insurgents with more vigor than heretofore. He has ordered the force at Santos to be strengthened in preparation for an expected attack on Mello's squadron.

Senator Ruy Barbosa says that on his arrival in Rio he would have been taken by force from the British steamer Magdalenia had not the captain, Lord of the party of British sailors aboard the Magdalenia to prevent any violence on a British ship on which Barbosa had taken refuge. Peixoto's spies, he said, held him until the steamer was ordered to sail from Rio. As soon as they returned to shore they were arrested and thrown into jail.

There are now 500 political prisoners in the jail in Rio Janeiro who have been arrested under orders from Peixoto. Barbosa's friends tell him there are scenes of cruelty and tyranny daily witnessed in Rio. Carts arrive at the cemetery almost every day containing the heads of political prisoners who have been executed, often without trial, by the government. Police spies, according to Barbosa, watch all suspected private citizens, and particularly "shadow" members of congress and political leaders. There is no concealment of the fact that there is under surveillance.

Guatemala, Oct. 21.—A deputation of high officials of the republic waited upon President Barrios on Thursday evening and demanded that the state affairs be restored to the condition in which they were previous to his coup d'etat. The president refused immediate compliance, and said he would regard any intrigue for foreign interference as treason and would order new elections at the proper time.

May Have Been Murdered. New York, Oct. 21.—Very suspicious circumstances attend the case of Dr. G. W. Lovatt, who it is reported, was shot by shooting himself in the head, and leads to the belief that it may have been a case of attempted murder. It is said that Lovatt, who is reported to have been lying with ten cents in his pocket, was shot on Oct. 21st at his father's house on 21st street and established apartments there. Soon, the son says, he found that many women had been in the room in the upper part of the house and that it was not a proper place for his mother to stay in. Accordingly he and his mother departed, urging his father to go with them. Dr. Lovatt refused to do this and insisted on establishing his office at the house.

Fatally Scalded. Whiting, Va., Oct. 21.—While the towboat Ben Wade was coming up the Kanawha river at noon yesterday the flues of one of the boilers burst, throwing scalding water and steam overboard, scalding the crew. Joseph Nicholas was fatally scalded, died in a short time, and Joe Archer and another, name unknown, were also terribly burnt, but are expected to recover.

Found a Fortune. Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 21.—Yesterday afternoon Andrew Benner, of Ridgeway, Ont., was arrested in this city, charged with stealing $7,000, the property of Mrs. May Steffens, of St. Paul. Thirty-five years ago a wealthy farmer of Ridgeway died in that town. He left two heirs, and before he died said they would find $35,000 concealed in the attic of the house. They looked for it, but did not find it. Afterwards Benner bought the place, and while at work demolishing the old structure came across two well-filled canvas bags hidden away on a beam in the framework of the house. Both bags were filled with gold. A count showed they contained $7,000. Benner immediately stopped work, and taking the first train for Buffalo, went directly to a bank and deposited his newly-acquired fortune. He told several of his neighbors. The report finally reached Mrs. Steffens, who engaged an attorney to recover the money.

MONEY IN INDIA

Increasing Scarcity of Cash Beginning to be Felt.

BANK OF BENGAL'S RATE OF DISCOUNT

Alleged to be Artificially Maintained at Four Per Cent.

While Bazaar Rate is Fully Eight—The London Times Proposes a Five Million Pound Gold Loan to Avert a Panic—Such Action is Absolutely Necessary—Women Whitecaps.

London, Oct. 23.—A special from Calcutta to the Times says: Money is daily becoming scarcer. The four per cent. discount rate of the Bank of Bengal is no criterion of the situation, as the bank artificially maintains its notes; the bazaar rate of discount is really eight per cent. The Times advocates a gold loan of five million pounds and says that the necessary steps is this absolute in order to avoid a panic.

An Imperious Missionary's Fate. New York, Oct. 23.—The Presbyterian board of home missions has decided to send another missionary to Cape Prince of Wales, Alaska, to take the place of H. R. Thornton, who was recently murdered by the Indians at that place. Authentic advices have shown conclusively that Thornton's tragic death was largely brought about by his imperious manner towards the natives. His murderers are three Indian lads who had expelled from the school. Two of them had been hanged before the leaving of last advices, and the third has probably fled to the interior. The Indians have sent assurances that if another preacher is sent he will be well taken care of and kindly treated.

Lynched for Poisoning. Lovelock, Ga., Oct. 23.—Arthur Bennett, a tenant on the plantation of Captain Joseph Burke, of Ellwood district, was lynched to-day by a masked mob assembled at Williams church, in a grove between Jonesburg and Morrow's station. Two weeks ago the family of Captain Burke was poisoned, and it was by chance that any of the seven lives were saved. The crime was charged to Bennett because of a quarrel he had with Captain Burke. After a two days' trial Bennett confessed that he had sprinkled arsenic in the grove at the mill. He was turned over to Constable Gilbert for imprisonment in Jonesburg jail. A crowd of men intercepted him at the old church and took the prisoner.

Sick of the Squandering. Paris, Oct. 21.—A sensation was created early this morning when the Russian naval officers were entering the military club by a man firing a revolver into the midst of a crowd looking on. The shot caused a panic, and it was at first thought that some German fanatic had made an attempt on the life of Admiral Avelan. The man who fired the shot was at once arrested and gave his name as Willis. He gave as a reason for the act that he had become sick of seeing huge sums of money being squandered while thousands of Frenchmen in Paris alone were suffering for bread. He wanted to protest against such an outrage, and took this means of doing it. The czar has sent commands to the Russian officers not to dance until after the funeral of Marshal MacMahon.

Qualifying for Divorce. New York, Oct. 23.—Cora Tanner the actress, and wife of Col. William E. Sinn, the theatrical manager, has taken up her residence in South Dakota, where she will sue for divorce as soon as she is legally qualified to do so. She will then return to the stage. The couple was asked yesterday if he knew her intentions. He replied that he was aware of her residence in South Dakota, and expected at some future time to be served with papers for a divorce suit, but he would make no comments for publication.

Spanish America. Montevideo, Oct. 23.—It is probable one of the chief naval engagements of the Brazilian revolution will be fought off the coast of Uruguay soon. Admiral Mello ordered the cruiser Republica to sail from Santos for Montevideo, and she arrived to-day. The cruiser and all on board were quarantined and will be kept there for two days. It is believed her object is to attack the Tiradentes as soon as the latter leaves the dock. When news of the professions of allegiance to Peixoto by the officers and crew of the Tiradentes reached Mello, he ordered the Republica to Montevideo to prevent the Tiradentes reaching Rio. Admiral Goncalves has been placed in command of the Tiradentes and she is manned by 100 government soldiers, sent here from Rio. They arrived here recently on the steamers Desterro and Santos, and were quarantined. Both vessels were released to-day. On the arrival of the cruiser Republica they steamed close into the harbor for safety. Both are now anchored near the city. It is hoped by Goncalves and his officers that the government of Uruguay will protect them and prevent any violation of international law through an attack by the rebel

The Maharajah lived for many years on his estate at Theford, making his home in the most renowned sporting estates in England. He was an excellent shot. In 1885 he presented to the British government a claim for increase of pension, payment of personal debts, and other things to which he considered himself entitled. This claim being disallowed he left England for India, but was not permitted to land. The Maharajah has been spending much of his time at the German springs and in Paris. DEATH OF DR. SCHAFF

New York, Oct. 20.—Rev. Dr. Philip Schaff, who was regarded by many during his life as the greatest living authority on church history, died this morning at his home in this city of paralysis. He was born at Chur, Switzerland, Jan. 1, 1810. He was educated at Chur, Stuttgart, Tubingen, Halle and Berlin. From 1843 to 1844 he lectured in the university of Berlin on exegesis and church history. In 1844 he went to America, where he became professor of theology in the Lutheran seminary of Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, (1844-49). He removed to New York in 1853; was secretary of the New York Sabbath committee in 1864-69, and lecturer in the theological seminaries in Andover, Hartford and New York. In 1871 he became professor of church history in the Union Theological Seminary, New York. He was one of the founders of the American branch of the Evangelical Alliance, and was sent three times (1869, 1872, 1875) to Europe to arrange for the general conference, which was held in New York in October, 1873. He was a member of a number of historical and literary societies, and was president of the American Bible Revision committee, organized at the request of the English committee, and in 1876 was sent to England to negotiate and arrange terms with the British revisers and the university presses with regard to co-operation and publication of the Anglo-American revision. That same year in August he attended a conference of the Old Catholics, Greeks and Protestants at Bonn, with a view to promote Christianity among the churches there represented. Dr. Schaff was the first president of the American Society of Church History, with its officers representing all the leading branches of the Protestant church, and in addition to the cultivation of that particular branch of literature to which it is devoted, the society aims at unifying Christian thought and sentiment throughout the world. Dr. Schaff was a voluminous writer, his works being mostly historical and exegetical. Some of them are written in German and others in English, but the German ones have been translated.

Coaling Ships at Sea. New York, Oct. 23.—The warships San Francisco and Kearsarge tested to-day a device for coaling ships at sea. This has ever been a question of vital interest to sea-going men, for though one vessel might transfer a cargo to another in smooth water, it has always been deemed impossible to do so in heavy weather. Captain Philip B. Low has made it possible, however, not only in any condition of wind and sea, but while both ships are under full wayward. Today's trial was under the official inspection of the navy department, by whose order the first apparatus was constructed. The Kearsarge left the city for Sandy Hook early this morning, being joined by the flagship San Francisco at noon, after which they both steamed out to sea. Off Sandy Hook lightship the San Francisco slowed down and took the Kearsarge in tow. The new device was then rigged on the port side of the Kearsarge's fore-castle and the San Francisco's quarter. It consisted of two upright spars extending as high as the topsails and topsail yard. Across these two parallel pieces of timber two short ones were lashed. To the after part of the lower one, at about two-thirds of the distance from the deck, a long steel penant was led, taking up the strain from the fore and topsail yard. To this same piece of timber was also attached a block, through which a steel transmitting wire passed, the end being secured to a counter poise that kept the line always taut and prevented sudden jerks. On the San Francisco's port quarter the apparatus consisted of two spars lashed together in the form of shear legs to the centre of which was suspended a large mat to resist the shock of the impact. The angle inclination was about one inch in every seven feet, 50 feet being the initial height on the vessel from which the coal was to be transferred. Despite the fact that this was the first practical test of Captain Low's invention, it was regarded as a success by all the officers present. By it coal can be transferred from one vessel to another in any sea or at any speed, a most useful bit of knowledge to a country like the United States, possessing few coaling stations outside of home waters.

Stamps Taken as False. New York, Oct. 23.—Young Fair, son of the California millionaire, is in the city, registered at the Bartholdi hotel. He said: "The printed stories about me are groundless. The majority of the yarns emanate from the San Francisco Examiner, a journal which took a malignant satisfaction in printing stuff about me which the editor knew to be false." Fair will sail for Europe in a few days.
