She spoke lightly but the glance that flashed from the dusky beauty of her eyes convinced me that if all the devices of a fascinating woman did not fail her she would bring Lindon Stafford to her feet. Who watched Dr. Stafford keenly saw that he was struggling with a passion that he felt would only bring him

But the hour had come when the strong man's soul would be tried in the crucible of a great affliction, and Lindon Stafford, standing face to face with uncompromising necessity, dare no longer fritter away existence in a dream of love The terrible scourge of yellow fever had swept over Memphis and within a week it presented all the appearance of a city of the dead. In their abject terror the people fled, they cared not whither, and fear, for the time being, crushed all noble instincts of humanity from hearts where craven selfishness predominated. My father's first thought was of Na. talie's safety, and to this end he telegraphed to Miss Chester's other guardian, who was then a resident in the Northern States. In due time that gentleman arrived to carry his beautiful ward and me far from the reach of the impending 14th March danger, but no remonstrance, no intreaty could induce me to desert what I conceived to be my post of duty.
