Weak, Nervous Women.

unknown. Strength and good health restored

I was subject to frequent attacks of nervousness that seemed to sap all my vitality and left me in a state of weakness and misery. I could not relish food and such a thing as a good night's rest was unknown. Incapable of any exertion and with an ever present tired and despondent feeling. Medicines that I took did not do any good; it was a case of gradually becoming weaker and weaker. Hearing of Scott's Sarsaparilla and its success with similar cases to mine, I seed it, and from the first few doses began to get better, appetite returned, got sed it, and from the first few doses began to get better, appetite returned, got attrail and refreshing sleep. I grew wronger, in fact life seemed to be fanned no activity.—Lottic Graham, 174 Crawbord Street, Toronto.

For any weakness of the nerves, pale and sallow complexion, loss of appetite see the best blood and nerve remedy exant, Scott's Sarsaparilla. Insist on geting Scott's—imitations do not cure.
