Fire at Newcastle Thursday Night

Stable of Union Hotel Badly Damaged--- Firemen Do Fine Work.

Fire was discovered in the stable of the Union Hotel, Newcastle, shortly before midnight on Thursday last. It was first seen by Mr. John W. McKay, of Millerton, who immediately gave the alarm.

The firemen were quickly on the scene but not before the flames had gained considerable headway. The fire spread from the stable to the rear of the kitchen of the house and it was with great difficulty that this building was saved.

A number of horses in the stable had a narrow escape and some splendid work was done by the firemen in rescuing the animals.

The buildings are owned by Mr. John McAulay, proprietor of the hotel.

The fire is supposed to have started by some one dropping a lighted match while after a horse.

The buildings were insured.

His Majesty King George Crowned

Brilliant and Imposing Ceremony was witnessed by Dignitaries From All Lands.

London, June 22.— King George V., eighth of the House of Hanover, was today consecrated to the service of the British Empire and in turn received the public homage of his world-wide subjects. With his Consort Queen Mary, His Majesty was crowned at 12.32 in the Abbey of Westminster with all the wealth of religious rites and Royal ceremonial prescribed by historic custom.

Hundreds of thousands of energetic natives of all kinds from China to Peru, joined the hustling throng and yielded themselves with magnificent enthusiasm to the coronation glamor.
