The solicitor general closed for the crown, relying on the fact that the girl's statement could not be false; as it was more than improbable that she would stain her own character by the admissions which she had made if the statements were not true.

His honor charged the jury at some length, stating the law in the clearest manner possible and reviewing the evidence from both sides. He advised the jury most strongly to give the prisoner in a case so serious as this the benefit of every reasonable doubt, but to make sure that the doubts were reasonable.

At ten minutes past six the jury retired, with the understanding that his honor would return at 7.15.
The jury returned a verdict of not guilty on the first count, and reported that they could not agree on the other charges. The jury was then discharged.

This morning Russell will be placed on trial for abduction and detention.

GRAND MANAN.

A Large Budget of General News from the Island.

Grand Manan, Oct. 12.—On the 2nd inst., while hoisting coal from a vessel at Gaikili's wharf, North Head, a little son of Alexander Gillmor backed his team off the wharf with no more serious consequences than a ducking to boy and horse, but it was a narrow chance for them.

George S. de Forest's traveller, Mr.
Barnes, and Sherman Lawson made a tour of the island on the 5th inst., advertising Union Blend teas. We wish he had called and left us one of the neat little glass paper weights for our office.

Miss Dora Lord, daughter of James Lord, has been making her friends on the island a visit.
It is reported that three men from Digby Neck, N. S., will stay at Grand Harbor and make a business of trapping foxes this winter. The foxes are very plentiful here now.

Plenty of herrings around Three Islands and Two Islands. None have been taken in the weirs at Three Islands yet, but the weirs at Two Islands and Seal Cove have had a good catch. Plenty of herrings are being netted in Long Pond bay and right up to the mouth of Grand Harbor. Both the weirs there are reported as taking herrings on the 12th inst.

Sch. Modena, 174 tons, of Windsor, N. S., Capt. David Gilest, arrived at Grand Harbor with a cargo of one hundred tons of salt for Newton Bros. on the 8th inst.

L. E. Foster opened his new meat market at Grand Harbor on the 10th inst. He calls it the "Pioneer Meat Market." He also drives a delivery team to all parts of the island.

James Bogue, special customs, and inland revenue officer, paid us a visit on the 10th inst.

E. A. Barton is again teaching school at Woodward's Cove.
It is reported that cattle at North Head are dying of some rather mysterious distemper. There are a number of cows taking the distemper and 100 have already died from it.

Sch. Ella and Jennie sailed for Boston on the 10th inst. Mrs. J. W. Wester of Seal Cove was to have sailed in her for Boston to go to the General hospital, but on the eve of the vessel's sailing was too ill to make the voyage.

Follock are reported still plentiful, but will not take the weir. Other fine fishing fair.

At the school meeting at Grand Harbor on the 11th inst. Albert Wester was re-elected trustee and Isaac Newton re-elected auditor. Six hundred dollars was voted for school purposes. At Seal Cove Wm. Harvey was elected trustee and six hundred dollars was voted for school purposes.
At North Head the retiring trustee and auditor was re-elected and same amount raised for school purposes as last.

The death of Rev. A. C. Dennis was heard with deep regret by his many friends. Mr. Dennis served the Methodist church here well and faithfully for a number of years.

We experienced a heavy breeze on the 10th inst. accompanied by a heavy rain fall. The wind kicked up a very ugly sea outside, as a small Nova Scotia schooner which left Grand Harbor for home on the 10th inst. found out. She got to within eight or nine miles of Brier Island when her captain had to give it up and return to Grand Manan, getting into Two Islands Harbor in a leaky condition, necessitating some repairs.

Rev. W. S. Covert returned from a trip to St. John on the 10th inst. Dr.
Covert has been spending a few days at home in his father's absence.

FREDERICTON.

The Logs Running Fast—Says He Put on Nearly Five Hundred Liberals.

Frederickton, Oct. 15.—The heavy rains of the last few days have caused the river to rise quite rapidly and the logs hung up below Grand Falls are coming in fast. It is expected that the river will be cleaned in ten days or less and all the lumber safely stored in the booms. It is estimated that there is about ten millions of this lumber.

Rev. J. D. Freeman, the new pastor of the Baptist church, is to arrive here on the 24th inst., and his induction will take place the same evening.

Besides the clergymen of the city, there will also be present several prominent Baptist ministers from St.
John and other parts of the province.
R. T. Babbitt, of Gaspe, was here today with a bag full of applications of proposed liberal voters which he wants Mr. Covert, the revising officer for Sunbury and Queens to review. Mr. Babbitt says he brought up nearly five hundred applications and that every one is a good liberal vote.

ment, also a tower and steeple.

A correspondent writing to the Sun from Mace's Bay, says: "On Thursday the 11th inst., I picked three large raspberries in a field near here. They were nice and fresh. The frost had not touched them."

Dr. J. H. Morrison on Saturday successfully removed a cancerous growth of Hugh Hodgkins of Bathurst.
The skillful manner in which Dr. Morrison performed the operation is most highly spoken of by Mr. Hodgkins.

Miss Helen Craigie of this city has been awarded a scholarship of $25 at the National Conservatory of Music, New York. Although only in her seventeenth year, Miss Craigie was the only pupil in the conservatory to receive this honor.

The receipts of fish have been large of late. Cod are coming in in abundant numbers. Shelburne herring are plentiful enough for the demand and Grand Manan herring are fully up to the wants of the city. There has been good herring fishing at Grand Manan of late.

who wishes to use her in the vicinity of St. Andrews.

Middleton is one of the thriving centres of business in Nova Scotia that is coming rapidly to the front.
The latest surprise to the public is a new weekly newspaper, published by Fred. E. Cox. The Outlook it is called, and the first issue is a very creditable one.

Tuesday's mail brought intelligence of the death of the late Lieut. Wm. R.
Fraser, of the 37th Regiment, who served in India during the mutiny.
Lieut. Fraser was a brother of Mrs.
H. L. Sturges, of this city. He has been reported to be a good many years, but his early friends have heard of his death with much regret.

Paul Thornton was very seriously hurt at the Achille club grounds on Saturday. He was playing on one of the foot ball teams, when he tripped and fell, striking on his head. It is a wonder his neck was not broken. As it was his spine was badly injured at the neck. He had to be conveyed to his home, where he lies in a precarious state.

There has been considerable of a boom in Campbellton this summer.
Several houses have been built, a good system of water works has been put in and a number of other necessary improvements made. The water works is a credit to the town. A number of men have been at work at this job nearly all summer and it has been done well.

Reno and Ford's rural drama, Joshua Simkins, was repeated at the Opera house yesterday, afternoon and evening, to a large audience, considering the severe rain storm that pre-valled throughout the day and night.
The company will return on Saturday and give another performance that evening.

The patronage extended during the engagement shows that the public appreciate a funny play and good music.

November 5th has been named as election day in Gloucester County for the vacancy in the provincial legislature caused by the resignation of Mr.
Blanchard, who was chosen for Senator Burns successor at Ottawa.

There are three candidates in the field. F. Venant, of the Bathurst Courier; Joseph Poirier, of Grand Anse, and P. E. Poulin, of Caracquet.

Capt. Dakin, of the sch. Eliza Bell, now at this port, is in receipt of a dispatch from Digby, stating that all the boats which were fishing off Trout Cove got safely ashore except two. One of them, that in which W. M. B. Dakin and his son were fishing, is here. The missing boat was occupied by Solomon Graham and Jacob Swift. It may turn up yet.

The liquidators of the St. John Building Society Friday began the payment of a five per cent dividend.
This is the fifth they have paid since the company went into liquidation, making a total of 55 per cent. The suits are thrown on the market and there are nearly three hundred depositors among whom this will be shared.
This payment will use up all the funds and the affairs of the concern will then be wound up.

The latest advices give the price of potatoes in Havana at $4.75 a barrel.
The duty is 1.03, so that after allowing for freight and other charges there should be at the above figures a clear profit of not less than 1.75 a barrel on potatoes which cost $1.00 a barrel here.
Of course there is the possibility of a decline in the price should large quantities be thrown on the market at once, but the earliest cargoes to arrive are evidently in for a good thing.

Keith Barber and H. W. Cote have been making feathers in Kingsbury. They got on the train at Apohau Friday morning and came as far as Norton with a huge string of woodcock and partridge. They had also a pair of English snipe, and a rabbit. While at Apohau they made their headquarters with S. Keirstead, who is himself a keen sportsman and a good shot. They covered much territory on their tramp and intend to bag a lot more game around Norton.

Miss Jennie Johnston of Carleton, who for the past year has acted in the capacity of bookkeeper for the Daily Record left on Tuesday afternoon on the C. P. R. for Vancouver, British Columbia, where she will make her future home. On Saturday afternoon Miss Johnston was presented with a handsome portfolio from the staff of the Progress and Record editorial and business offices. Miss Johnston will be accompanied by Mrs. S. T. Odell and the Misses Allingham, daughters of H. H. Allingham.

The people of Shediac have come to the very wise conclusion that they should be protected with some kind of protection in case a requisition is made. They have dug and walled up. They are twelve feet square and ten feet deep. They will be supplied with water from a reservoir by means of pipes. A hand engine has been purchased and will be used to pump water of hose the people of Shediac have been in a very good position to fight fire. The money for these improvements have been raised by subscription.

The annual school meeting as required by law, was held in District No. 13, Lancaster, in the Superior school building Thursday.
Wm. Fenwick was elected chairman of the board of trustees, and a merchant holder. On the case was a suitable inscription. The station baggage masters each received a massive gold-headed ebony cane, also engraved with the names of the trustees. The gifts were acknowledged by the railway men, who, feeling that they had only done their duty, were glad to know that their discharge had been so warmly appreciated. Hon. D. J.
Lellan and Mr. Seavey were the committee of suburban residents in charge of the presentation.

A special service for farmers and their families was held in the Church of the Ascension at Apohau, Sunday. by Rev. H. W. Little, rector of Sussex and Studholm. Rain storms prevailed throughout the day, but a large gathering from all parts of the parish assembled at the church, which was decorated in a suitable manner with grain, roots, and the fruits of the field. A special choir composed of Mrs. H. W. Little, Miss Manchester, Miss Secord, Miss Adams, Miss Sharp, W. W. Farlow, etc., led the well known harvest music We Plough the Fields, and Come Ye Thankful People.

The rector gave an address appropriate to the occasion from Psalm 104. The offertory, which was a church expenses, was a liberal one.

The dominion travelling dairy returned last week from the up river counties, and the people of Queens dairy, will attend the above meetings and give illustrations in buttermak-ing, cream separating and milk testing.

In the probate court, Monday, administration of the estate of John E.
Turnbull, deceased, was granted to Alfred Markham and R. W. W. Frink, sons-in-law of deceased, who left three sons, John E. Turnbull of Melbourne, Australia; James H. Turnbull of Winalope, Canada; and Geo.
B. Turnbull of this city. He also left three daughters, all of them married, viz. Mrs. Alfred Markham and Mrs.
R. W. W. Frink of this city, and Mrs.
Georgiana Paley of Roxbury, Mass.

The deceased's widow also survives him. All the interested parties except the son in Australia have signed

The local government have done nothing as yet to replace the Lepreux bridge that was destroyed by the forest fires some time ago. The water is 18 ft high now that parties have begun their horses across and hand their wagons across the railway bridge.

Ex-Alderman S. L. Brittain called at the Sun office yesterday afternoon and handed over to the local staff 15 or 20 ripe raspberries which he picked yesterday in the garden adjoining his residence on Duke street, west end. Mr. Brittain says quite a lot of berries have been removed from the bushes during the past fortnight.

A pleasing event took place at the residence of W. W. Wetmore, King Street, Monday evening. It was the marriage of his daughter, Miss Lena Wetmore, to Chas. Smith of New York. Rev. W. O. Raymond performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting parties. The happy couple left last evening for New York, where they will reside.

James Long, a man about forty years of age, who has been employed for some time with J. B. Hamm, was found dead Wednesday morning in the house of Wm. Weatherhead, on Union street, Long, who boarded with Mr.
Weatherhead, had been complaining for the past two or three days about a pain near his heart. On Tuesday night he went home about eight o'clock and laid down on a sofa in the dining room. He was not feeling well and Mrs. Weatherhead spread a covering over him and left him there.
This morning he was still lying there, and when Mrs. Weatherhead tried to rouse him she discovered that he was dead. He was lying in the same position as he was the night before, and he must have died some time during the night without a struggle.
Long belonged to Black River and was unmarried. Coroner Berryman, who was summoned, did not consider an inquest necessary, as death had, undoubtedly, resulted from heart disease.

At the I. C. railway depot on Friday four railway men were made happy, viz. Conductor Joe Henderson, and Baggage Master Charles Quilly, of the Fredericton express, and station baggage masters W. J. Kelly and John Henderson. During the season just closed these officials have in many ways obliged the people who summer in the country on the line of the C. P. R., and they received substantial evidence that their efforts had been appreciated. Edward Seaf, on behalf of these suburban residents, presented Conductor Henderson and Baggage Master Quilly with a case containing a fine merchaum and briar pipe and a merchaum cigar holder. On the case was a suitable
the names of the trustees. The gifts
so warmly appreciated. Hon. D. J.
Lellan and Mr. Seavey were the com-
of the presentation.

A TALE OF TWO TRAMPS.

They Burglarized a House and Tried to Steal a Boat.

Joseph Seeley's house on the St.
Andrew's road, Musquash, was broken into by two tramps on Tuesday last, while he was at work, and Mrs. Seeley absent from home. The tramps stole a bulldog revolver, a suit of clothes and a hammer. They next turned up at James M. Wenn's place, Little Musquash, about 7 o'clock the same evening. They wanted to stay all night. Mr. Wenn was suspicious, but yielded to their pleadings. He invited them to remove their wet overcoats, but one of them declined. They were shown to the room they were to occupy. In the morning Mr. Wenn called them to breakfast, and had just gone out the back door when he heard the report of a gun from their room. He rushed back, forced the door in and asked what they were doing. One of them remarked, "It is only an accident," and pulled the revolver out of his pocket. Mr. Wenn thought the fellow meant mischief, and instantly seized him and took the revolver from him. He then told them to eat and get out quick. When they were going he gave the revolver back to them. After they left he found a fine breech loading gun under the straw bed. One of the tramps had evidently had the gun under his coat, and this explained why he refused to take the coat off. One barrel of the gun was empty, and shots were found embedded in the wall of the room. It was the gun, not the revolver that had accidentally gone off. Mr. Wenn has the gun.

The precious pair were next seen by Patrick Carrigan, on the shore, two miles from Mr. Wenn's. One of them had undressed and swam out to a boat buoyed off shore, cut the painter and brought the craft ashore. Carrigan ordered them to leave the boat alone and clear out. The tramps at once got out of the boat, seized his clothes and the two started off. Carrigan found a large sheath knife in the boat. Their intention was probably to row along shore to the American side of the line.

That afternoon (Wednesday) a party consisting of Gilbrith Wenn, Samuel Wenn, and Mr. Carrigan, who were out gunning, came across the tramps, one of them building a fire to cook meat, and the other chasing some cows, probably to get milk. Gil.
Wenn shouted to them, "Come here!
