BISON FURNACE

The upper section in a Bison Hot Water Furnace is heated first and is always the hottest.

This insures immediate circulation.

And it sends the water into the radiators at its highest temperature, quickly heating the building.

In other furnaces the lower sections are heated first and the upper section, from which the water circulates, is never the hottest.

The Bison has more good heating points than all other heaters combined.

FURTHER MIX-UP IN BRIBERY CASE

Conservative Counsel Hopes to Soon Catch Men Who Swore He Was Not Witness Wanted

DEATH REPORTED OF FORMER RESIDENTS

Mrs. John Holden Passed Away in Ottawa—W. D. Sinclair Died in New York.

TORONTO, Oct. 22.—Richard C. Brown, formerly a shoe merchant of London, in giving evidence in the London bribery case this morning, swore that Jerry Collins told him the Conservatives had offered him $2,000 to tell all he knew about the elections, and he thought they would pay Collins $2,500. Collins said that if the Liberals did not treat him right, he thought he would accept the offer and give his papers and receipts to Meridith and Judd, the lawyers who were acting for the Conservatives.

This afternoon Moose Westbrook, an agent of an innkeeper at Brantford, gave his name as John O'Mara. Westbrook remembered having seen O'Mara in the committee room in Brantford during the Heyd-Henry election. He was in a polling booth when the man entered and voted in the name of Cephas Brown, a neighbor of his. When the man left the room Westbrook followed him to another polling booth and asked him if he intended to vote again.

"He said, 'yes,' I asked him how many times he wanted to vote, and he said it was none of my business. Westbrook described the man as about 5 feet 6 inches in height; dark moustache and dark hair, turning grey.

"Was that the man who afterwards turned out to be John O'Mara?" "I can't say."

The man was arrested at Brantford on his own bail for $200 and disappeared.

DuVernet, the Conservative counsel, regretted this witness was not present when O'Mara denied his identity yesterday. However, he hoped to catch him again soon.

The case was adjourned till Wednesday next.

The death of Mrs. John Holden, mother of the late Dr. Holden, occurred yesterday at Ottawa, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Stewart. A telegram announcing the sad intelligence was received here yesterday by Judge Forbes. Mrs. Holden was a daughter of the late John Paul, and lived here all her life, until about a year ago, when she removed to Ottawa to live with Mrs. Stewart, who is now her only surviving child.

The funeral will be held in the city on Friday on the arrival of the C. P. R. train. Rev. Canon Richardson and Mr. Hand will conduct the services at Fernhill.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of William Donald O'Gorman, in Brooklyn, on the 24th inst. Mr. Sinclair, who was forty years of age, left this city seventeen years ago. He was very well known here, and previous to moving to New York was employed with Wm. Lewis & Sons, and later in Campbell's Edge Tool Works, as a machinist. In New York he was employed as an electrician and engineer. It is only a year ago since Mr. Sinclair paid a visit to this city and his many friends here will deeply regret to hear of his death.

His father died some years ago, but his mother is still alive, residing at 80 Orange street. Besides his mother he is survived by two brothers—Peter, who is employed in Schofield Bros., and Douglas, of Boston, and eight sisters—Mrs. A. W. Cohen, Brooklyn; Mrs. D. A. Angevine, Montreal; Mrs. P. W. Harrison, Boston; Mrs. J. E. Macaulay, Brooklyn; Mrs. J. E. Griffin, Mrs. A. E. Henderson, Mrs. J. Hastie and Miss Alice Sinclair of this city. The body will be brought home for burial.

FARMER'S BANK NOT WORRYING

TORONTO, Oct. 24.—"With a list of subscribers thirteen feet long and over $200,000 in cash actually subscribed, the Farmers' Bank of Canada, which is expected to begin business in a month, doesn't seem to have much need to worry because of the writ issued on behalf of a few shareholders," said W. E. Travers, general manager, this morning. According to Travers there are charges in the writ which cannot be substantiated. He claims the bank was organized entirely within the law, and he holds a receipt from the Bank of Montreal to the credit of the receiver general in accordance with the banking act of Canada for $250,000.

WILLIAM MYLES.

A story in which pathos and affection are strongly mingled had in a way, its termination at the Home for Incurables Tuesday evening, when the kindly hand of death brought to an end the period of terrible suffering which William Myles, a young Englishman, had been called upon to bear. The deceased was taken into the institution on June 21st last, his back having been broken at Fletwell's match factory, Hampton, by the fall upon him of a huge pile of wood, which was the cause of instantaneous death to one of his fellow workmen.

SPEAKS ON CORRUPTION.

Anglican Clergyman of Ottawa Comments on Recent Developments.

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—Rev. J. F. Gorman, in the course of a sermon in Grace Church on Sunday, said "that people should be guided in their criticism of those in high places, and should hesitate to speak evil of dignitaries. The white, lurid light of publicity beats ever about their path, and they are often exposed to the slander and malignity of foes. It is a different matter, however, when wrong-doing is beyond doubt, it then becomes the duty of every true man, who has the well-being of his country at heart, to protest with all his might; for silence at such a time may approach dangerously near to condonation."

Corruption in political life was next touched on. "Constituencies are regarded as marketable entities, to be knocked down to the highest bidder, and now at length in these times of enlightenment, moral force and true worth are no longer of account, for the almighty dollar wins the day. The truest aristocracy, that of worth, has given place to the most debasing of all its forms, the aristocracy of the dollar. God help the youth of our land with such an ideal before it, and God help the country with such a future in store for it."

The preacher exhorted the congregation to train the young people in their homes, so that they may help to counteract the pernicious influences of the evils which are so glaringly apparent at the present moment.

SALARY GRABBERS WERE BANDITS, SAYS DR. WELDON

Startling Deliverance of Conservative Candidate at Queens-Shelburne Nomination

Ashamed of Mr. Borden and His Party—Both Candidates Pledge Themselves to Conduct a Clean Campaign—Mr. Fielding's Strong Defense—Nomination Proceedings Enthusiastic.

LIVERPOOL, N. S., Oct. 24.—The political campaign in Queens-Shelburne is now on and the contest promises to be a memorable one in this province, which has been the scene of many hard fought battles in the past. Today was nomination day, and Hon. W. S. Fielding, who has been the Conservative candidate for the past ten years, was chosen as Liberal standard bearer, while Dr. R. C. Weldon, of Albert county, N. B., was the choice of the Conservatives. The town was crowded with visitors, coming from all over the country to hear the speeches of the candidates. At noon a special train rolled in from Shelburne, bringing over 500 ardent supporters of both candidates. At least 2,500 persons were present at the town hall and vicinity. Mayor Hendry presided, and welcomed both Liberals and Conservatives.

FIELDING PLEADS FOR CLEAN ELECTION.

Mr. Fielding was the first speaker, and he was accorded a great ovation. He presented the issues of the contest in a fair and statesmanlike manner, and was greeted with cheer after cheer as he pointed out the hypocrisy of the Opposition and made a telling reference to the conduct of the Conservatives who after signing a round-robbed declaration to increase the salary of the members of the House of Commons, went on the hustings and denounced the transactions. He asked why should the electors of the county send Dr. Weldon to Ottawa to vote with Mr. Borden, who was the chief beneficiary of the whole business.

He strongly urged that the election should be conducted in the strictest conformity with the election law. The use of any corrupt means would be a great public wrong and also a wrong to himself. "Let the voice of the honest voter be free and untrammelled," said Mr. Fielding, "and I will accept the verdict. I yield to no man in my desire that we should have a clean election."

The unsetting of a candidate is not an unusual thing, he said. There have been in the history of the Dominion parliament since confederation 350 members elected half Liberals, and half Conservatives, and in some cases a shadow of cloud on any act of mine since I have represented this county.

Of members elected half Liberals, among the prominent men being Sir J. C. Abbott, ultimately premier. Messrs. Babb, Langelier, McLaughlin, Montague, Prior, Dickey and Foster, all members of Conservative cabinets, as well as Sir Charles Tupper and Sir John A. Macdonald, who was not unseated but the judges who tried the petition reported that corruption had extensively prevailed at his election.

If his opponents were of the belief that there was a carnival of corruption in the last election, if they believed he did not get a majority of honest votes, and if they believed the Tories conducted their election honestly, why they did not come into the court under the provisions of the act and claim the seat. They refused to do so because the act provides for an inquiry into both sides, and they did not want this.

He was not asking for sympathy or pledges, but he wanted to say that many prominent Conservatives in both counties had promised him their support, and as they were men of honor he had confidence that they would stand to their word. He then reviewed the free record of the Liberal government, and pointed out that they are spending eighty millions per year from election to election.

Mr. Fielding said the steamer Arctic, of which much had been made, was well provided, but it would have been a crime not to provision her well, going on such a perilous voyage. He pointed out the growth of Canada, and the increased trade and revenue under Liberal rule.

DR. WELDON CENSURES BORDEN.

Dr. Weldon was also received with applause. He expressed his appreciation at meeting the electors, he said persons should be careful in reading partisan newspapers, and regretted that the election was called so soon. He said he always urged his friends to run elections without run or money. He agreed with the statement of Mr. Fielding that both parties used money

NATURE'S BEAUTIES NOT SUFFICIENT

Rockwood Park May Have Restaurant and Other Modern Attractions—To Increase Its Popularity

Plans for making Rockwood Park more attractive for visitors next summer were discussed at a meeting of the directors of the Horticultural Association yesterday afternoon. Frank White was present at the meeting and conferred with the directors regarding the proposed improvements. As the matter has not yet been given much attention a committee composed of J. D. Hazen, George S. Fisher and Joseph Allison was appointed to further consider the matter with Mr. White. Plans were suggested yesterday for starting an up-to-date restaurant and installing other innovations.

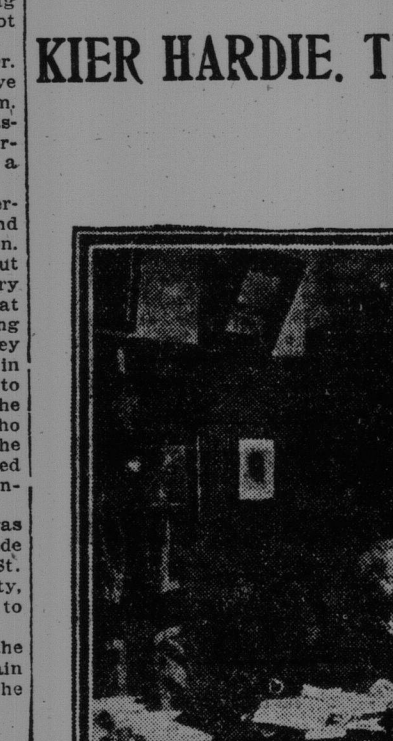

In spite of its many natural attractions the park is not used to a very great extent by the citizens. It is thought that if some attractions, other than the beauties of nature, were provided the park would be much more extensively used. Mr. White has not given much thought to the scheme he is inclined to look favorably on the matter. He considers that it would be possible to make the park much more attractive to the citizens without destroying any of its natural charms. The lack of transportation facilities is against the Rockwood Park but even so it is easier of access than the Seaside Park. If, however, the Street Railway Company extended its lines to Rockwood the park would probably be used by an immense greater number of people than at present.

Cockburn is to open tomorrow morning but may not be proceeded with until Mr. McGill elects whether he will be tried before the police magistrate or go to a higher court.

THE CASE OF REV. FRANK SANFORD

Has Been Tried Three Times for Manslaughter

All the Cases Have Been Not Prossed—Leader of Holy Ghost and Us Society at Jerusalem

LEWISTON, Me., Oct. 24.—All the cases in the Androscoggin county supreme court against Rev. Frank W. Sanford, of Shiloh, leader of the Holy Ghost and Us Society, including one charge of manslaughter and four of cruelty to children, have been not prossed. Against each of the charges on the record of the clerk of the court has been written the memorandum: "Not prossed on advice of the court." Sanford has been tried three times on an indictment for manslaughter alleging that the death of Leander Bartlett, a fourteen-year-old boy, who was one of the Shiloh colony, resulted from undue punishment inflicted for disobedience of the rules of the colony. It was alleged that the boy was deprived of nourishment and that weakened by hunger he was attacked with a sickness which resulted fatally. The first trial which was held in the Androscoggin county court, in Auburn, in January, 1904, resulted in a disagreement. On motion of Sanford's counsel, who thought the state of public opinion in the county prejudicial to their client's interests, a change of venue was secured and the second trial was held in the Franklin county court in Farmington in May, 1904. The jury after less than an hour's deliberation returned a verdict of guilty. Counsel for Sanford, however, appeared to the full bench of the supreme court and the verdict was set aside and a new trial ordered. The third trial was held in the Androscoggin county court at Auburn in September, 1905, and again resulted in a disagreement of the jury.

At the clearing up of the docket of the term of court just closed in Auburn, County Attorney Ralph W. Crockett, who conducted the case against Sanford for the state in the third trial, was advised by Judge Wiswell, the presiding judge, and by other justices who were consulted that in view of the expense that would be incurred, and the difficulty that the state has met with in getting evidence in previous trials it would be well to not pross the indictment. This was done in the case of the manslaughter charge and in the case of the cruelty charges also.

Frank W. Sanford is now in Jerusalem. In 1904 he was tried on a charge of cruelty to his own child and a fine of $100 and costs, amounting in all to $176.42, was imposed and paid.

ARMS THROWN INTO THE SEA

Statement of Secretary of War Taft Made Good

Thousands of Surrendered Cuban Rifles and Carbines Sunk in Thirty Fathoms of Water

HAVANA, Oct. 24.—The statement made by Secretary of War Taft on the eve of his departure from Cuba that he would put all the arms surrendered by the insurgents where they would do no further harm, was verified today when a company of the Cuban artillery spent the afternoon throwing these weapons into the sea from the outer bastion of Moro Castle. Thousands of rifles and carbines were sunk in thirty fathoms of water.

Some unrest continues to prevail in the provinces of Puerto Principe and Santa Clara, where small armed bands are roving and committing minor depredations. The residents of Holguin requested protection of troops against a considerable body of ex-rebels who are reported not to have disbanded, and a battalion of the eleventh infantry reached Holguin this afternoon.

The mayor of the town of Aguacate, in the province of Havana, ousted from office was restored to his position Tuesday, and organized an armed escort of twenty-five men, alleging that he feared an attack by the moderates. Governor Magoon tonight ordered Governor Nunez to proceed to Aguacate and compel the mayor to surrender the arms of his escort and bring the weapons to Havana.

ARMY GENERAL'S REPORT NEARLY READY

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—A portion of the auditor general's report will be ready to be tabled when the house meets next month in spite of the fact that parliament begins this year two months ahead of the usual time and the auditor general's additional duty. However, an unusual effort is being made by the new auditor, Mr. Fraser. He will have the railways and canals, the justice, the state and a number of other accounts in the hands of the members on opening day and the whole of the accounts will be ready before the Christmas holidays.

This is of the utmost importance, as little progress can be made with the business of parliament until the opposition have the report of the auditor general in their hands.

BAY FULL OF MINES.

Half-Dozen Steamers Already Sunk Near Vladivostok.

Little Known of Sinking of Varragin—Navigation Suspended in Kargose Bay Until Drugging Operations Have Cleared Out All Mines.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—But few details have yet been received of the blowing up by a floating mine the wooden coasting steamer Varragin on Saturday. She was bound for Reichta at the head of Ussuri Bay, about thirty miles from Vladivostok. She struck the mine when a few miles from Reichta. The whole of her stern was blown off and she sank immediately. The number saved or drowned are not known. Her name cannot be found on the shipping lists available here, and her ownership has not been established. As a coaster she would have few European passengers on board.

The governor-general of Vladivostok has given orders for the immediate suspension of navigation in Kargose Bay the arm of the Ussuri, where Reichta is located until the completion of the drugging operations to clear the zone of mines. These operations will be commenced without delay. More than half a dozen steamers already have been sunk from coming in contact with floating mines on the waters encircling Vladivostok. The disaster to the Varragin reveals the fact that the Russian authorities during the war mined the bay about Vladivostok in anticipation of attempts by the Japanese to effect landings at Kargose.

CRUISER CANADA TO TAKE MAIL FROM LINER.

HALIFAX, Oct. 24.—The cruiser Canada has been ordered to North Sydney to await the arrival of the Allan liner with the English mails. Some shipping men are dubious as to the outcome of the experiment, as its success will largely depend upon the condition of the weather.
