COCHRANE'S MILL AT SCOTT'S SETTLEMENT BURNED

Fire spread from a pile of slabs—Loss $2,000 or $3,000—St. John Man Arrested in Moncton.

MONCTON, N. B., April 20.—Word was received here this morning that Geo. H. Cochrane's lumber mill at Scott's Settlement about ten miles from the city, was destroyed by fire last night. As near as can be ascertained the fire originated in some burning slabs, the buildings being razed to the ground and all the contents with the exception of a planer destroyed. No one was around at the time, the mill being located in the woods. When workmen arrived this morning they found their place of employment in ashes. The mill was well equipped with machinery and the loss will probably be heavy, between two and three thousand dollars. If the engine and boiler are destroyed the loss will exceed this amount. John Kane, who says he belongs to St. John, was arrested last night for begging. He is an elderly man of disreputable appearance and had been annoying householders by insistent demands.

FIRE AT GENOA DOES $500,000 DAMAGE

GENOA, Italy, April 20.—Fire today threatened to destroy the Odoro shipyard here, one of the largest in Italy, but the firemen, assisted by 1500 workmen, succeeded in obtaining control of the situation after damage to the extent of about $500,000 had been done.

"The Angel of Peace Against Universal Peace" will be the subject of Dr. Rabinowitz at the Hazen Avenue synagogue Sunday April 21, at 4 o'clock p. m. All are welcome.

PERMANENT IMPERIAL BUREAU MAY BE OUTCOME OF CONFERENCE. PREMIER DEAKIN PREDICTS WAR.

LONDON, April 19.—The colonial ministers are resting from the conference and as far as possible from social functions today. The matter that is occasioning the greatest concern at the moment in talk among themselves is the fact that the public here and in the colonies upon whose judgment each one of them is dependent are being kept in the dark as to the vital points in the conference debates. Some Unionist journals declare that the Imperial government finds the blunt speaking of some of the delegates, notably Messrs. Deakin, Ward and Jameson so harassing that Lord Elgin, acting on the instructions of Premier Campbell-Bannerman, has put his foot down and declares peremptorily that open discussion is inimical to the best interests of the government here and of the Empire as a whole. Sir Wilfrid Laurier is reported as saying that it matters very little whether the discussions are open to the public or not. Imperial preference, each colony will be made a department of the government of its own colony, the high commissioner himself being a member of his own government, and being also in the King's privy council, here, as Sir Charles Tupper was during a part of his High Commission, which Sir Wilfrid Laurier thinks is a natural outcome of present practice and ideas of the Imperial Council itself.

Hon. L. P. Brodeur, interviewed respecting the terms of the resolution on the Imperial Council, cabled by the Canadian Associated Press last night, admitted that the cable was not altogether incorrect. It is stated that Lord Elgin submitted a resolution at a meeting of the cabinet today. The final draft will be decided by the members tomorrow. Sir Arthur Biggs, a prominent Liberal, speaking to the C. A. P., said: "What a row there could be if at any Liberal function our guests dined on carpet made in the form of a faithful representation of the Union Jack." Jack, the guests who dined at the 1900 Club last night.

Canada Wants No Favours

The Imperial Industries Club today launched the colonial premiers at the Royal Hotel. Premier Laurier replying to the toast, "Our Guests," said: "When I came to London and found on my table a large pile of invitations, I consulted with my good friend Lord Strathcona, who told me of all the invitations I received I must accept the invitation of this club. Touching on the tariff question, Sir Wilfrid reiterated his declaration that Canada wanted no favours. The English people must decide. His usefulness and influence did not extend beyond Canada. He spoke for less than five minutes, and was followed by Lord Strathcona, Mr. Haldane has announced that no effort will be spared to procure opportunities for the colonial premiers to acquire information regarding the volunteers and yeomanry.

Pilgrims Banquet Premiers

(Associated Press.)

LONDON, April 19.—Field Marshal Lord Roberts presided at a banquet given this evening at Claridge by the Pilgrims' Society in honor of the various colonial prime ministers who are at present in London to take part in the conference. It was the most brilliant of the honours accorded the visiting premiers since their arrival in this city.

The members of the society and their guests numbered 350; twice that number would have attended, but many applications were refused because of the lack of accommodation.

At the same table with Lord Roberts sat Whiteley Reid, the ambassador of the United States, Sir Frederick Grey, the foreign secretary, Lord Strathcona, the Canadian high commissioner, Alfred Deakin, the premier of Australia, and the Duke of Devonshire.

The government was represented by a majority of the members of the cabinet and in addition many of the most prominent men at the bar, in the church and in the commercial world sat down at the tables. The Duke of Argyll, Austin Chamberlain, Winston Churchill, Lord Esher, Lord Fitzmaurice, Rider Haggard, Lord Kinnaird, Archdeacon Sinclair, the Duke of Sutherland, Field Marshal Sir George White, General Methuen, Lord Nicholson and Harry E. Brittain were among those present. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Premier of Canada, General Louis Botha, Premier of the Transvaal, and Dr. Jameson, Premier of Cape Colony, were absent and Canada alone

MILITIA NOTES

FOR CITY AND ELSEWHERE

It is understood that the local drill season will begin on the evening of Friday, the 26th instant. That night the 62nd will have a march out to start the season of 1907. It is expected there will be a meeting of officers at Headquarters early next week, Tuesday evening being the most likely date. Arrangements will then be made for the summer.

The rapid approach of the summer's drill season is entailing the time which the N. C. O.'s of the 62nd will have to enjoy their well-appointed club room in Palmer's Chambers, Princess street. Five years ago when the non-coms organized their club they had a room with four bare walls. Since that time the appearance of the club-room has been entirely changed. A pool-table enables the members to pleasantly pass the time and the walls of the room have been covered with pictures. Well upholstered sofas surround the room. One set of pictures which were obtained during the past winter cannot be duplicated in Canada. They represent the uniforms worn by various regiments of the British Army at different periods of their existence. The club has proved a great benefit to the sergeants and corporals of the regiment, keeping them together during the winter season when there are no drills and fostering esprit de corps. Any member of the Fusiliers who wears stripes can become a member of the club, and must avail themselves of the privilege, although a few still remain outside the organization.

71st York Regiment—Provisional Lieutenant F. W. Hewitson is permitted to retire, March 4th, 1907.—Canada Gazette, April 13th.

Lieut. McKnight of the 71st Regiment is taking a short course in Infantry at No. 3 Military Depot to qualify for the position of captain.—Fredericton Gleaser.

The name of Sergeant G. B. Drake, 62nd St. John Fusiliers, appears in the list of those who have been awarded the Colonial Auxiliary Forces Long Service medal, which was published in the Canada Gazette of April 13th.

It has been recently decided that the Canadian troops for Boley will sail from Montreal on June the fourteenth on the C.P.R. steamer Empress of Britain.

74th Regiment, "The Brunswick Rangers"—To be provisional non-commissioned staff sergeant, David Robinson, Chaplain, vice Lieutenant R. O. W. Steven, who is transferred to the Corps Reserve, 19th January, 1907.—Canada Gazette, April 13th.

The pay and allowance regulations of the Canadian Militia, are so affected by general order 47 recently issued, that a man who has served in the permanent forces of Canada, or in the British regular army, upon re-enlistment within a year of the date of discharge will have previous service reckoned toward increased pay. If the re-enlistment takes place more than a year after discharge it will be in the discretion of the soldier's commanding officer to recommend him for increased pay.

The Militia Department has decided that in the future city regiments that have cloth tunics issued to them will be required to make the issue last for ten years, and not six, as was formerly the rule.

"One regiment from each district, composed of officers and men of city infantry corps, is authorized to train for four days in the camp of instruction in which the rural infantry corps of that district are assembled for annual training."

According to the above, which appeared in last Saturday's Gazette, it is possible that the 62nd Fusiliers, or a part of them, will spend four days under canvas at Sussex in the early part of July. Some seven or eight years ago it was the usual thing for the St. John corps to go to the brigade camp for rifle practice and to undergo training a little nearer active service than drill on the Barrack Green or route marching through the city streets.

On Wednesday evening last the members of the Signalling School, which closed that evening, together with other members of the St. John corps, gathered at the 62nd headquarters, Charlotte street, to make a presentation to Sergeant Kemmen, R. C. R., who acted as instructor to the Signalling School. The sergeant was presented with a purse of twenty dollars in gold by the members of the school and also with a smoking set by Sergeant Montgomery, 62nd Regt., steward of the 62nd Officers' Club. During his six weeks' stay in the city Sergeant Kemmen made a host of friends, and it is to be hoped that he may soon revisit St. John. Sergeant Kemmen left for Halifax Friday morning. The night class of the school of signalling was composed of nineteen members, chiefly from the city corps. The men belonged to the 62nd, 3rd Regt., R. C. G. A., A. M. C. and 8th Hussars.
