The Annapolis Co. Conference of Baptist Churches.

The Annapolis Co. Conference of Baptist churches met at Melvern, July 19, for an evening service. After the preliminaries of the service Rev. E. L. Steeves of Paradise preached from the text "What think ye of Christ," found in Matt. XXII, 42. The sermon was an able array of the opinions of Christ, held by the people of different classes mentioned in the New Testament, closing with such a use of the text as made a personal appeal to those present to show their loyality to Christ. A social service followed the sermon in which a large number responded to the question of the text.

On Tuesday morning a devotional service was held for half an hour by the Pres., Pastor J. T. Eaton. After this the business of the conference was taken up.

An address was then given by Pastor An address was then given by Pastor Brown on revivals—their origin, progress and hindrance. A paper was also read by Pastor Eaton on Spirituality,—What is it and how—may it be promoted? A spirited discussion then followed on these subjects until time for adjournment.

Resolved to hold the next conference at Clarence.

Since the assassination of Premier Canovas del Castillo, the authorities of Scotland Yaid have been exercising the most active supervision over the anarchists of Great Britain and they have been in constant communication with the police authorities of Paris, Rome, Madrid and other capitals. The number of detectives stationed at the various ports has been doubled and new arrivals are constantly shadowed. But, in spite of these precautions, the commissioner of police, Sir Edward Bradford, has given permission for a public meeting in Trafalgar Square on Sunday, Aug. 22, to "denounce the revival of torture in Spanish prisons." In answer to the surprise and indignation of the public at the granting of a permit to hold this meeting the Scotland Yard authorities declared that Sir Edward Bradford did not know that it was the anarchists who had applied for it. The newspapers say it is certain that there will be trouble if the meeting is held, as the people here are waking up to the necessity of a stern suppression of the anarchists.
