WHAT MAKES YOU COUGH.

Did you ever wonder just what it is that makes you cough? In a general way it is understood to be an involuntary offort of nature to eject something from the breath-pipe. As a matter of fact, merely a slight throat inflammation caused by a cold will

NEWS OF THE PASSING WEEK.

An imperial Chinese edict issued June sixth announces that owing to the hot weather and the advanced age of the dowager empress, the return of the court to Pekin has been postponed until Sept first which the astrologers pronounse to be a lucky day on which to commence a journey.

The first death from small pox since the epidemic broke out in Providence, R I, occurred Saturday morning when Maria Di Luglio succumbed to the disease. The patient had a severe case which she was not able to withstand because of her weak ened condition. Strange as it may seem her child of six days, born while the woman was very ill, has not contracted the disease. Two prominent physicians have reported that Miss Mabel L Burt of Bridgetown, N. > Some time Sunday alternoon two U. S. army prisoners who were serving sentences on Governor's island, New York, for desertion, escaped. They embarked upon an improvised raft and drifted away from the island on the strong flood tide. The prisoners were Harry McGuire who was serving a term of 18 months for desertion and John Winship who was serving a term of two years for the same offense.

Two men gathering wood along the power canal at Ansonia, Conn., early Sunday morning discovered the dead body of Wm H. Moore, a prominent New Haven real estate man, and a two ounce bottle near by which had contained carbolic acid indicating suicide. The spot where the body was found is but a stone's throw from the home of Moore's father, who is a member of the Farrell Foundry and Machine Co. Mcore leaves a widow and one child.
