rience has proved Dr. Williams as a lile to be without an equal as a uilder and nerve restorer. It is this of acting directly on the blood and hat enables these pills to currenge as rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia or ataxia, paralysis, and all the diseases of the blood and nerves. ills are sold by all dealers in medican be h.d by mail, postprid, at the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., lle, Oat.

BORN.

ARRIED.

t 15 Wm Devoe ') Olinda Dubbar. 18, Joseph Wynn, to Mary McKenzie pt 25, A 'red Po. cons to E hel Flench. Sept 24 Eva Deniels to Stanley Grimm, 25, Frank'in Cotton to Ethel Stapleept 25. Lucy Carter to Medley A: in-Eep! 25, Mildred G. u'd to John John-Sept 25, Edward White to Minnie John

Sept 25, Jomes McFatridge ') Mar

26, George Porter, 39. t 26, Atthur Bennett, 26. Sept 14, Ma. J Hoop r, 48. Sept 22, John McDonald pp. 20, Be Jimin Holden, SS p. Sept 28, Richard Jewel, 63, pt 13, Leona McWilliams, 66. oyal, Sept 24, Charlotte Rice, 60. Sept 1, Lyndon Porter, 7 months, pt 12, Sydney Huisman, 7 months, ept 14, Florence Fletcher, 2 months, Aug 25 Mrs. Jacob N. Whitshow. . Aug 25. Mrs Jacob N Whitehouse

BAILBOADS.

ovel. Sept 24. Charles Reynolds

colonial Railway er MONDAY June 10:h, 1901, train (Sundays excepted) as follows:—

WILL LEAVE ST. JOHN

VILLARRIVE AT ST. JOHN Monday. are run by Eas ern Sincard tim

D. POTTINGER, 3. Jun; 6. 1901. O. CARVILL, C. T. A., 7Ket St. John, N.B.

PROGRESS.

VOL. XIII., NO. 681

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY OCTOBER 12, 1901.

The Maritime Provinces To The Duke of York, Visiting St. John, N. B., 17th, Oct, 1901.

> Our Royal Guest the stately son, Of England's Sovereign King; Who His great Empire's love has won, To thee our welcomes ring. All Canada as one to day,
> In young and vigorous life;
> From Ocean unto Ocean's spray, Greet thee and thy true wife.

A Royal salvo in his name-We give, whose steps before-Thine own, we hailed with loud acclaim, Here when he came ashore. United all in one great voice, With music, mirth and song, We rise to meet thee and rejoice, A vast and mighty throng.

The people of this Northland proud— To own old England's heir; With martial honors round thee crowd. And give thee cheer on cheer. Along our lofty God crowned hills, By every vale and stream; The loyal heart with rapture thrills, Thrice welcome is our theme.

We passed you safely all along, This proud Dominion's length; Where joy and peace have been our song, Meet emblems of our strength. We've given you our honest cheer, From hill to valley down; And everywhere the truth made clear, We honor Britain's Crown.

Fearless we front the heaving sea, Ever we stand on guard; Where sing the wild waves down the lea, Old ocean's tuneful bard. And when we bid our last adieu, Perchance no more to meet; In every soul devotion true, Makes brotherhood complete.

Take home with thee to that dear land, Of thy ancestral power; Our service at our King's command, Ready in danger's hour. Here where the stars of freedom shine, And from our rock ribbed shore; God's blessing follow thee and thine, And keep them evermore.

Cyprus Golde.

The Royal Visit.

On Thursday, October 17:h there will arrive in the City of St. John, their Roys] Highnesses the Duke and Duches of City will have the honor in welcoming a distinguished personages.

This City and Province for a long time to the 62ad Fusiliers. past has looked forward to this visit and Lieut Governor McClels the Province have for months worked their Royal Highnesses while in this city. industriously and faithfully in their preparations to make the coming reception one in which his honor will take up his rest worthy of New Brunswick and one characteristic of its peeple's hespitality.

The difficulties in planning for such a vast undertaking have necessarily been grogramme that has been arranged will meet with the approval of all. The visit will be a short one but everyone will have join in extending a hearty and enthusiastic

The train is due to arrive at the Interolonial Station at 2. 35 P M. local time. Here His Honor the Lieut.-Governor, ac companied by the members this government will receive their Highnesses, after which carriages will be taken for the ex-hibition building. The drive as arranged will be along Mill and Dock to King, up King along the north side of King Square to Sidney, down Sidney to Q een Square, thence the north side of the Square to Charlotte, down Charlotte to Broad, ney to the exhibition.

At the Exhibition His Worship the Mayor will receive the royal party, and the programme as arranged to be carried proceeded with. This programme consist of the presentation of addresses and the singing of national airs by twelve hundred school children.

After the proceedings at the exhibition Cornwall and York, the fu'ure King and are concluded the royal party will go to Queen of the British Empire. It will be the Barrack grounds, where will be assemthe first time in over forty years that this bled the two thousand troops that had previously lined the streets. Here the future ruler of the country and the first presentation will take place of the medals time in its history of receiving such two to the South African soldiers, and the consecration and presentation of the flag citizens of St John and the government of ed Major Maude tendering a dinner to This will be given in the Macnutt house, dence. There will be accommodation at the barquet for thirty four guests.

In the evening their Royal Highnesses will again proceed to the Exhibition, great, but they have been met and the where a reception will be held and at 9 30 the display of fireworks will begin. The programme for the following morning has not been arranged at the time PROGRESS opportunity to see the Royal party and went to press, but will be announced shortly.

The work of the city decoration is pro gressing rapidly. The arches are well underway and people generally are taking a deep interest in making the city look its prettiest

Those who have had the management of affairs have done their work well. Now it rests with the people to do their part. Let all do their duty. Let all cheer and join in extending a hearty and magnificent welcome.

Don't err, it isn't the Duke of York alone the nation cheers, but the throne through Broad to Sydney and down Syd and people behind it—the beef eaters, the sturdy men, those who have made the little island great.

We look at the Duke and pass him away down the long avenue of British history. out in this building will immediately be We cheer because Wellington won son, Burns and Gladstone; we cheer be cause of her whom we loved, our Quee his grandmother; because of our ki whom we respect, his father.

represents, and in whose history he may some time take a vital part as king.

A Good Poet.
Mr. Barry Stratton who died at Fred ar-icton on Thursday, was a distinguished New Brunswick from a literary standpoint. Mr. Stratton did not enter much into this world's society. His life was eccentric, the furure. but there was never anyone to dispute his ability. He was a born poet and some of his writings are very pretty. He seems to have inherited his poetical ability from his ancesotrs, as Carmen, Roberts and Stratton were all cousins and their cleverness in the literary line have never been

In some respects Canadian cities are not as speculative as United States and English cities. In the latter there are hundreds of speculators who make no places, from which to view distinguished visitors or big processions. Still probably the Canadian way is the best. No one has yet grumbled about being unable to see and they have the money still in their

Judging from the number of football clubs in the Province this autumn there should be some interesting games before the snow flies. St. John has a whole host of clubs, Fredericton has two and the Col leges are all to the front as strong as ever. Probably after the Royal visit, tootball at Waterloo; we cheer because the maimed, glorious Nelson fell and every man did his duty; we cheer because of Gordon, the great man with a soul that wanted to reach out and love the whole world; we cheer because of Alfred the Great, the road-maker and burner of pancskes; we cheer because of Cromwell, the old-time rough rider; because of Shakespeare, the peet for all time, and Milton, his brother in immortality, because of Byron and Tenny-

The arches, the great guns, the hats doffed, courtiers on their knees, the cheers are not for the Duke alone, but in honor of the great past of the little island that he

3 mm was war are a second and a second a second and a second a second and a second a second and a second and a second and a second and ful from the point of view of attendance and sport was not equal in some respects so far as exhibits went, compared with previous years. The gentlemen who work hard for the show obtaining subscriptions and features that will make it interesting have a task that is not envied them. They do the best they can Sometimes they are short of judges. Last year two city men acted with the assistance of a third gentleman who was supposed to be well versed in the line of knitting etc. The decisions of those critics were better received than those of this year when a well-known plumber tried to distinguish between the best and worst. He will keep clear of many exhibitors in

STILL ANOTHER.

Gunuing Accidents Still Continue, the Lat The Fredericton Gleaner of Thursday, tells of another fatal gunning accident. It A young man, George Shanks, son of Walter Shanks, who works at Palmer's larrigan factory and resides on Charlotte street, met with a gunning accident yester day that will result in the loss of two or accept the position while many Catholics three fingers, and possibly in the loss of a feel that they would sooner have Judge small fortune out of renting stands and hand. With a companion he was Landry on the bench than in the governorgoing partridge shooting, they leaving their homes soon after dinner upon bicycles to which they strapped their guns. When out on the Wilsey road and about five miles from home Shanks fell over a large rock, the gun, an old tashioned muzzle loader, being discharged and the whole charge of shot going through the palm of his right hand and almost completely severing the second and third fingers. His companion staunched the flow of blood as well as he knew how and the year or two, but this last is the unkindest young men hurried back home, and by the time they reached there Shanks was almost exhausted from the great loss of blood Dr. Bridges was summoned and rendered

The fair at Loch Lomond, while success | all possible surgical aid. If is feared that the young man's hand will have to be amputated. He is a popular young fellow and has the sympathy of his many friends.

TOPICS TALKED ABOUT.

The Fair at Loch Lomond-Another Shooting Accident-

Interesting Stories.

Mr. Geo. Leavitt purchased Miss Todd, by Poter the Great, dam Fenella by Arion, from J. M. Johnson for Howland Russell, Boston, owner of the good mares Mazaite, 2,06 1-4, and Miss Whitney, 211 1-2, and Mr. Russell has refused a good lot more than the $4000 he paid Mr. Johnson for her. In the yearling class at the Readville open air horse show Miss Todd won the first prize $25 and the blue ribbon, and Wm. Russell Allen of the Allen stock farm, who was judge of that class, stated that the whole six contestants were the greatest lot of yearlings he ever saw together in a ring. We can raise some good ones down here.

This will probably be the last great occasion at which the present governor will efficiate as his term of effice expires in November. There is not much talk regarding who the new man will be, but it is the general impression that there will be a new man. Judge Landry's name is frequently mentioned but some of the judge's friends say that he would not

It cannot be said that the wooden structure that has been placed ever the King's Square fountain adds much to the beauty of the City. It might look all right by night but probably more people including the Duke and Duchess themselves will see it by day light. The poor fountain has had to put up with a good deal the past cut of all.

Major A. J. Armstrong missed his opportunity at the last session of the orangemen in not accepting the deputy grand mastership. Had he done so he would now be the grand master, the posi tion having become vacant through Mr. Wallace's death. Likely, however, neither Mr. Armstrong nor his friends had any idea of what was g ing to happen

A Bucking Broncho.

At the sale of the horses from the wild and wooly west last Saturday it is stated that a certain St. John police sergeant biin one of the bronchos for a Sheffi :ld street denizen. If this statement is correct it would seem to take more than a conting ent from the Lord's Day Alliance to purity the morals of some of the St. John police force.

A correspondent writing to Progress suggests that the Royal party in their travel through the City should move at a very slow pace that all may have a good look at their future King and Queen. The suggestion is a good one, but probably it is not necessary for it is generally the case of distinguished visitors to give

Keep Off the Street.

People next week, that is those people who own baby carriages and bicycles, should see that they are kept off the public streets. It is said that teams are to be prohibited, but the small carriage and the wheel are of as much anneyance as the bigger conveyance.

The epera house has taken a boom after the Chapman concerts. It seems that it wanted Mr. Chapman to waken the people up. Both Jessie Maclachlan and Mr] Harkins did a good business and the opera house looked like old times.

Albert leward

The Present King as he Appeared on his Visit to St. John in 1860.