Ready's Extra Stout

is a Sensible Spring Tonic

These balmy Spring days like we've had lately are just the kind of days when you're sort of achey and tired out all over—it is the way most of us feel these first Spring days when our nerves and bodies are called upon to meet additional fatigues after the long strain of the Winter months.

So right now is the time to order a barrel or case of READY'S EXTRA STOUT and by drinking it regularly prove to your satisfaction that it is a re-constructive and recuperative tonic.

READY'S STOUT brings new food and new strength properties to the wornout body tissues and gives you that real old-time vim and vigor and it tones up those Winter-weary nerves.
