'T WAS A HOLIDAY WELL SPENT. Labor Day in the City, Throughout New Brunswick, and in Various Places Beyond Our Borders—Picnics, Sports, and Parades.

Although the steady application of one's energy to the different lines of human endeavor, is an admirable quality, yet there comes a time when man feels that a general cessation, even after the enjoyment of Christmas, New Year's, the 24th and Dominion Day, would not be regarded with disfavor.

Through not boasting the venerable age of other days of rest yet Labor Day has become such a yearly feature that it is increasing in importance, and into its twenty-four hours is crowded about as much jollity, mirth and the genius of creating a good time, as those twenty-four hours could possibly accommodate.

also won the pole vault, standing high jump, putting shot and hoop, step and jump. The exhibition on the horizontal bar by Foley and Kelly was one of the best events of the afternoon.

At the Capital. Frederick, Sept. 2.—(Special)—The weather today was fine and most of the factories and places of business were closed for the holiday. The A. O. H. picnic at Taylortown took a large number from town.

A fair sized number of sports attended the races in the trotting park. Only three heats were put on and resulted as follows: Sigo won from Midnight, best time 2:21.
